Local Candidates Speak

At the Oswego Rally, last Thursday night, at which the majority of the county's political candidates appeared on the program, the local aspirants, H. C. Stephens of George, E. W. Bartlett of Estacada and Harvey Gibson of Barton, made good addresses, with W. Givens giving a rousing talk in favor of the candidacy of J. W. Reed.

The 60th birthday anniversary of A. O. Whitcomb of Garfield was celebrated at Hard Scrabble Ranch, on May 10th, with a family dinner party.

Editor Taylor of the Molalla Pioneer, who delivered an interesting address at the Estacada M. E. Church last Sunday evening, spent a few hours Monday visiting with friends in Estacada and incidentally compared grievances with the News editor for a few minutes.

Jack Nicholson and Fred Bannister, who are employed in the lumber business at Dee, Oregon, are spending a few days in Estacada.

Mrs. C. M. O'Neel of Currinsville, entertained the Currinsville Priscilla Club at an all day session, on May 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Wright of Portland and Mrs. Edith Phyl of Union, Or., were guests at the Irwin D. Wright home in Estacada last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Spring of Currinsville are this week moving to Stockton, California, where they will reside permanently.

Clyde English of Garfield, who last week was operated upon in a Portland hospital, is at home again and aside from being dependent upon crutches, will soon be about as good as ever. As soon as he is perfectly recovered, Clyde expects to enter the U. S. Navy.

The Springwater choir, under the leadership of Mr. David Horner, is not only charming those people who are fortunate enough to be able to come and hear their concerts, but last Sunday made a combination picnic and concert trip to the Shibley place, where they sang a number of selections for Grandpa Shibley, who is unable to leave his home. It was hard to tell whether the joy of receiving or giving, was the greater in this show of neighborliness.
