Scarifying The Main Road

Supervisor Frank Millard of the Springwater district dropped into the News office last week to mention that he had completed scarifying the main Springwater road between the Folsom corner and the top of the hill near the Schmidt place.

At first the editor was stumped to discover just what scarify meant, but an examination of a dictionary, showed that Frank and his crew, "defaced, scratched, disfigured or covered with scars," the above mentioned road. After scarifying same, he regraded and rolled it into good shape for travel.

Good road work is also going on in the Currinsville district, with Supervisor Kitching and crew now cutting away and graveling the hill near the Wilbur Wade and Ely places.

An Analysis of "Ain't"

"Ain't" is an improper abbreviation of "are not." British writers spell it "a'n't," which properly indicates its derivation. Americans make it an inclusive offense, using it for "am not" and "is not," as well as for "are not." It is unquestionably the worst instance of slovenliness in the common speech of today.

Yet it is by no means of universal or even of common use. It will slip occasionally from refined lips, always with a jar to the enunciator as well as to the hearer. But the habitual user of "ain'ts" is careless of refinement. He may be an excellent citizen who never beats his wife or kicks the cat. But there is likely to be some thing slipshod about him somewhere. For "ain't" is needless as well as uncouth; it fills no void and supplies no need.—Cleveland Plain Dealer

HEAR WITHOUT EARS

Police and Detectives Are Using Lip Reading in Place of the Dictagraph

Thousands of deaf people are today throwing away all hearing devices and enjoying all conversation. This method is easily and quickly acquired thru our system. Absolutely the only thing of its kind in the country. Our proposition is entirely original. We guarantee results, it will amaze you. Cost is trifling. See what New International Encyclopaedia says on Lip Reading. Hundreds of people with normal hearing are taking up Lip Reading for the many additional benefits gained. You can understand what the actors are saying in the moving pictures. You can understand what people are saying just as far away as you can see them. The eye understands beyond the range of hearing. Send no money, but mention this paper and state whether or not you are deaf. All particulars will be sent you absolutely free and with no expense to you. Address, School of Lip Language, Kansas City, Missouri.

THE GOOD JUDGE LEARNS FROM THE HIRED MAN

ALL around you men are talking about it. You, yourself, are probably telling friends about W-B CUT Chewing—the Real Tobacco Chew, new cut, long shred. Get a pouch! Notice how the salt brings out the real tobacco taste; how it satisfies without grinding; how long it lasts.

Mark Twain as "Attraction."

A girl who was a stranger to Mark Twain once found her way into his Bermuda home with the hope of getting a sight of the author. She came suddenly in contact with him and frankly explained her errand.

"Have you seen the crystal cave yet," he asked, "or the aquarium?"

"No; I came to see you first," she answered.

"Well, you shouldn't have seen me first," he answered. "I run in opposition to the crystal and the aquarium. But they're not shucks to me. I'm lots better. I give them their money's worth. But you should see them. Then you'll appreciate me."

This was said in his most earnest drawl and with only a sparkle of humor in his keen blue eyes.

Livestock Curfew At 7 O'Clock

The Estacada City Council last week passed an ordinance, whereby hereafter all fines exacted from infractions of the herd law, will go into the city treasury, with Marshal Ames paid a straight salary for his enforcement of the law.

The Marshal is now repairing the town pound and will take up any and all livestock found loose within the city limits, after 7 P. M.

Effect of Familiarity.

"What we see constantly we cease to see vividly. The faces we notice least are those we know—and perhaps really love—best. Our eyes are a bit jaded by following the familiar lines."

"The same is true of pure color," says a writer in the Atlantic Monthly. "Water and sky are very beautiful, and you may suppose that you are duly appreciative of them, but lie on the deck of a catboat and look at them with your head in an unaccustomed position—sideways and upside down—and note how the colors flare out upon your vision."

"Or stay indoors for a few weeks in a room where you do not get much outlook and then go out. You will be blinded by the glory of the world, but not for long. The glory, alas, fades quickly, and habit settles upon you once more!"

"With our friends' faces somewhat the same thing happens. When we first meet them they pique us pleasantly with their unfamiliar line and color. Gradually we grow used to them. The first vision has passed."
