George To Celebrate Fourth

The George community will hold a Fourth of July celebration on Monday, July 3rd in the Lins' grove, adjoining the George Club building.

An attractive program has been arranged, including plenty of good music by the Garfield Band.

Everyone is invited to bring lunches and come prepared to spend the day.

In as much as this celebration is to be held the day previous to the big Estacada celebration, it is likely that the good folks from George contemplate celebrating with Estacada on Tuesday.

Mrs. A. T. Sarver of Estacada left this week for Spring, Virginia, where she will join her husband, who preceded her a few weeks and make their future home.

J. C. Peterson of Springwater last Friday underwent a minor operation, having had a tumor removed from his wrist.
