Inspirational Lecturers Coming

SOME people think an inspirational lecture is something like an air castle, but if they would only hear Arthur Franzke or Harriette Gunn Roberson at Chautauqua they would need to change their opinions at once. Mrs. Roberson is one of the most delightful and charming ladies you will ever meet, and her lecture will give you a new insight into the problems of women. Arthur A. Franzke is making his second tour of the Pacific coast under the auspices of the Chautauqua.

The Misses Rose and Ida Tandler of Portland spent Sunday at the parental home.

Frank Cockerline, who has been operating the Viola-Portland auto service, is considering going to Washington, where he will act as agent for a new automobile accessory. Last Sunday, he took a load of young people to Linne-man and Portland.

Chas. Hicinbotham, wife and daughter of River Mill, celebrated their ninth wedding anniversary at the Sevier and Hughes homes last Sunday.

As a poultry raising center, Viola is fast coming to the front; with Joe Youngferdorf now raising 700 young chicks and 100 ducks; F. Gibb, 360 chickens; with F. Cockerline this year raising 1100 chicks, 75 turkeys and 60 ducks. In addition to these, many of the neighbors have a full quota of fowls.

Harvey Mattoon, wife and son Harry, went to Oregon City on Monday.

Owing to a break in the rock crusher, work has been temporarily stopped on the Ficken Hill road, but will be underway again in a few days.

Cashier Wright of the Estacada State Bank attended the meeting of the Oregon Bankers' Assn. in Portland one day this week.

Miss B. Helgemo of Portland was the week-end guest of her cousin Mrs. M. Eimon.

Miss N. Vallen is home from Oregon City High School.

Miss Ella Bittner and friend Miss Rotter of Oregon City spent several days with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bittner.

About half of the neighborhood turned out Decoration Day and cleaned up the grave yard. Each grave was well cleaned and decorated as well as could be owing to the scarcity of the flowers. As soon as convenient they expect to plat the grave yard and fence it, fixing it up in good shape.

Christian Church Notes

The Sunday morning service June 11th will be preached by W. Givens and the evening service will be in charge of Pastor Drill. Sunday School at 10 A. M. Everyone cordially invited to be present at all services.

As retiring Post Master of Estacada I wish to thank my many friends and the public at large for the kind and courteous treatment shown me while in the office, and for the good will and hearty support in my trial for re-appointment. I trust that you will extend the same courtesies to my successor, as shown me.

Signed A. N. Johnson.
