Park To Blacksmith

Bert Park of Springwater and Estacada is putting in a blacksmith shop in Estacada near Kreiger's flour and feed store, which within a short time, will be open for business.

James Standish of the U. S. S. Oregon, now in harbor at Portland, visited Wednesday afternoon at the homes of his cousins, P. F. and R. M. Standish of Garfield and Estacada.

Jim Marchbank of North Yakima, Wash. arrived in Estacada Wednesday, where he will remain indefinitely.

The Bittner Plug & Shingle Co. of Springwater are shipping a carload of shingles this week.

He Had Been There.

"I beg you to observe," said the talented pianist, displaying his technique to some of his admirers, "how exceedingly light is my touch."

"I don't have to observe," muttered a saddened citizen on the edge of the group. "I know by experience."—Richmond Times-Dispatch

Not Much Difference.

Brown—Now, my wife always consults me about everything she buys for herself—dresses, hats, shoes, gloves—everything. Robinson—So does mine—that is, she always asks me for the money. Comes to the same thing in the end.

Rather Rough.

"Here's hard luck."
"What's that?"
"Flubdub's wife wants him to pay the income tax on the alimony he gives her."—Louisville Courier-Journal

Just Like a Man.

Mr. Baggie—Confound that tailor! These trousers are a mile too long. Mrs. Baggie—How much shall I turn them up? Mr. Baggie—About half an inch.—London Answers.

Awry.

"What ees eet zat means your English word 'awry'?" asked the French girl, newly landed on these shores.

"Why," replied the walking dictionary, "it means crooked, disheveled. If my hat is awry it's tipped on one side, or if you apply it to my necktie it means muddled up. In what connection did you hear it?"

But she was frowning violently and muttering: "Ah-h-h! Zat beast! I was sure he meant to insult, but nevalr did I believe eet was so bad!"

"Why, what on earth happened to you?"

"I ride in ze tram. I say to ze conductaire, 'Please to say to me w'en we stop at ze Forty-second street.' And he smile at me—so—and he say to me, 'A' r!'!"—New York Post.

Teeth of a Shark.

In respect to its dentition the shark is a very remarkable creature. The white shark has seven rows of teeth, while other species vary in the number of rows they possess. It must be understood, however, that the shark only uses one row at a time. The other rows lie down inside the mouth behind the edge of the jaw, erecting themselves when it is time for them to take successively the place of the first row. When one observes how keen edged these incisors are it seems no wonder that they can bite off a bit rope as readily as if it were thread.

THE OLD CHEWER KNOWS THE WORTH OF THE REAL TOBACCO CHEW

AS AN OLD TIMER HOW DOES IT GO?

I GET MORE SATISFACTION AND ONE SMALL CHEW TAKES THE PLACE OF TWO CHEWS OF THE OLD KIND—SEE.

WHAT'S the good of a tobacco that makes you take a big wad and grind and grind on it? W-B CUT Chewing—the Real Tobacco Chew, see cut, long shred—gives you real tobacco satisfaction from a small chew. That's why men are glad to get it, and to pass the glad word along to every man who chews. Made by WEYMAN-BRUTON COMPANY, 50 Union Square, New York City

Children's Day Services

At the Springwater Presbyterian Church on next Sunday, special services will be held in the morning and afternoon, with all parties invited to bring their lunches and remain during the day.

Special services will also be held that evening at the Eagle Creek Church.

A Community Church Committee meeting will occur Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the News office.

Signed R. M. Standish,
Chairman.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

HEAR WITHOUT EARS

Police and Detectives Are Using Lip Reading in Place of the Dictagraph

Thousands of deaf people are today throwing away all hearing devices and enjoying all conversation. This method is easily and quickly acquired thru our system. Absolutely the only thing of its kind in the country. Our proposition is entirely original. We guarantee results, it will amaze you. Cost is trifling. See what New International Encyclopaedia says on Lip Reading. Hundreds of people with normal hearing are taking up Lip Reading for the many additional benefits gained. You can understand what the actors are saying in the moving pictures. You can understand what people are saying just as far away as you can see them. The eye understands beyond the range of hearing. Send no money, but mention this paper and state whether or not you are deaf. All particulars will be sent you absolutely free and with no expense to you. Address, School of Lip Language, Kansas City, Missouri.

Hamadan In History.

Hamadan seems to be certainly the Ekbatana, the summer residence of the ancient Persian kings, where Alexander the Great stored his enormous loot from Persia, estimated at over £41,000,000. But there is topographical difficulty about identifying it with the earlier and still more interesting Ekbatana described by Herodotus, the city where the first Median king, Deioces, realized the ideal of royal isolation by shutting himself up in a palace on top of a hill, surrounded by seven fortified circles of different colors descending the slopes in order and allowing the inhabitants of these to communicate with him only by writing. Either this story is a myth or the Ekbatana of Herodotus is to be found on a hill between Hamadan and Tabriz.—London Chronicle

Eating and Fighting.

It is not creditable to a thinking people that the two things they most thank God for should be eating and fighting. We say grace when we are going to cut up lamb and chicken, and when we have stuffed ourselves to an extent that an orang outang would be ashamed of we offer up our best praises to the Creator for having blown and sated his "images" our fellow creatures, to atoms and drenched them in blood and dirt.—Leigh Hunt

Cream Sauce.

To make a satisfactory cream sauce, first put the milk on and while this is getting warm rub the butter and flour together until smooth. As soon as the milk comes to the boil gradually add the creamy mixture while the milk continues to boil, and the finished sauce will be quite smooth.

Close Call.

"Pa," said little Jimmie, "I was very near getting to the head of my class today."

"How was that, Jimmie?"

"Why, a big word came all the way down to me, and if I could only have spelled it I should have gone clear up."—Exchange.

Intelligent Lad.

Employer—Boy, take this letter and wait for an answer. New Boy—Yes, sir. Employer—Well, what are you waiting for? New Boy—The answer, sir.—Boston Transcript.

"Pa, what is a pessimist?"
"My son, a pessimist is a man who when given his choice between two evils takes both of them."—Life
