The rain has spoiled a great many cherries in this vicinity.

Mrs. H. S. Jones, of Portland, was recently the guest of her mother, Mrs. Viola Douglass.

Miss Iva Mumpower, who has been working for Mrs. Howlett, has gone home for a week's vacation.

Will Douglass and wife were dinner guests at the home of E. Naylor the other day.

Mr. Beckett came to the farm to spend the Fourth.

Mrs. Hattie Clester is doing the work for Mrs. Howlett during the absence of Miss Iva Mumpower.

Mrs. Baker, of Estacada, who stayed with Mrs. Howlett for two weeks, returned home last Wednesday.

George Judd built a garage to house his Ford car.

Mrs. Baker, with the help of J. P. Woodle, fixed an apparatus, like they use at the hospitals for raising large people who cannot help themselves, at Mrs. Howlett's to assist in lifting her, and it is a much easier way than just lifting her.

Resolutions of Condolence

Whereas, the Divine Master hath removed from our midst our Worthy Chaplain, Sister Lucy Glover, June 8, 1916.

Resolved, That we, the Patrons of Eagle Creek Grange, No. 297, extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mrs. Glover was a sincere member of the Grange and will be greatly missed by her many friends, and Brothers and Sisters of the Grange.

Chas. Masson,
Mrs. L. V. Gibson,
Mrs. Marie Heiple.
