HOW IT WORKS OUT

Suppose you order a $16 suit. 5% of $16 is 80c—making the cost to you only $15.20. With $17 to your credit, we will rebate to you $1.80 in cash. Or suppose you order a $20 suit. Deducting 5% from $20 leaves $19—so by paying $2 more, you get a $20 suit. If a $25 suit, you get a discount of $1.25—making the cost of suit $23.75—leaving $6.75 for you to pay. Whatever the price of the suit you choose—you get 5% discount.

C. C. Miller

Steam Fitting Plumbing Electric Wiring

To the Public: Estacada, Oregon, July 7, 1916

The undersigned having just finished the construction of a residence for Dr. Wells in Estacada, Or. takes pleasure in expressing the satisfaction he feels in the Plumbing and Electric Wiring done by Mr. C. C. Miller of this city in the said dwelling.

I have found Mr. Miller a capable and conscientious man, who has, in order to give thorough satisfaction, done more and in a number of instances furnished better fixtures than his contract called for.

Both myself and Dr. Wells are well pleased with his work and desire to let the public know it. We can recommend Mr. Miller as a fair and honest workman whose aim seems to be to do more rather than less to make a job satisfactory and right.

Respectfully, Ed. W. Misener

Givens - Going - Goes - Gone

Walt Givens claims they never intended to leave for Turner, Oregon, to attend the state convention of the Christian Church, until this week, but the News chronicled the fact last week, supposing the convention was then in progress.

Anyway, Mr. and Mrs. Givens and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Drill are supposed to be at Turner now, where Mr. Givens is taking a leading part on the program, including a well learned speech with gestures, which the editor had the pleasure of hearing rehearsed in the rear of the feed store early this week. With the exception of the speech, all are expected back home the latter part of this week or the early part of next.

Annual Cherry Feast

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Currin of Currinsville last Sunday afternoon entertained about thirty friends at their annual cherry eating feast, when the big tree in the front yard yielded its bushels of ripe fruit for the benefit of the guests, with only its leaves and a few broken branches as mementoes of the yearly feast.

As usual, this lawn event was enjoyed by all, including the children and grown-ups, all entering into the proper spirit of the occasion, with the subsequent Monday's wash full of fruit stained dresses, collars and waists.
