Eagle Creek Notes

H. H. Hoffmeister, who some time ago underwent an operation at the Good Samaritan Hospital, is able to be about again and returned home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Dickinson, of Oswego, accompanied by three young ladies from that city, attended Eagle Creek Grange last Saturday. They are wide-awake patrons of husbandry and Eagle Creek patrons are always glad to have them visit their Grange. They put on some drill work which was highly appreciated. Owing to the busy time there was a very small number of the members of Eagle Creek Grange present, but those who were absent will regret their absence when they learn that Brother and Sister Dickinson were visiting the Grange.

After a few days visit with her sister, Mrs. Norval Kirchem of Logan, Mrs. Walter Douglass returned home on Monday.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—A good mare, good top buggy and a set of single harness to trade for cord-wood or stock hogs; or will sell cheap for cash or good note. W. H. Holder, Estacada.

It's A Fact that our work is a drawing card and prices remain the same.

We are still at the old stand and wish to serve all our patrons right.

Call and see for yourself.

Barton Resident Dies Suddenly

Word was received this week of the sudden death from apoplexy on Thursday last, of Alonzo Saxton of Barton.

The deceased was in his 52nd year and resided on a farm near the base of the Boring Hill road and is survived by a wife and several children.

Recruits Wanted For Army

The News is advised that Capt. John B. Hibbard, Infantry, Oregon Militia, Recruiting Officer, will arrive in Estacada today, remaining until Friday evening.

Captain Hibbard's object is to secure recruits for the Oregon National Guard, now on the border.

L. J. Palmateer of Garfield went to Morgan, Oregon, Monday to help his brother Will, during the harvesting.

Mrs. Harry Halley and children of Portland are the guests at the home of her cousin, Mrs. I. D. Wright of Estacada.

Grange To Meet Evenings

As all farmers are too busy these days to take off an entire day to attend meetings, the Garfield Grange will hold its next meeting, Saturday evening, July 22nd.

The usual business will be transacted from 7:30 to 8:30 P. M., after which a program will be given, to which all are invited.

Viola Breezes

Mrs. Wm. Hicinbotham and daughter Mildred came out from Portland and spent Saturday and Sunday at the Sevier home. Mrs. Hicinbotham is improving in health.

C. Hively, Joe LaCroy and A. C. White expect to go to Spokane Wednesday by jitney route to take a chance in that land lottery.

James Craft, who is working at the Creason mill, had a narrow escape from having one of his legs broken. As it was, he received a few bad bruises; it was caused by the carriage backing on him.

There is lots of hay spoiled here in the valley. Mr. Tannler has 18 acres cut in the field, and there are others who will loose all their hay.

J. F. Wiles, who rented the J. Ficken farm, expects to go to Idaho, and Mr. Ficken will move back to the old farm again.

Mrs. Charles Landers and little son are camping at Gladstone and attending the Chautauqua.

Ray Miller and wife, and daughter Bernice attended the Chautauqua on Monday. Quite a number of Viola people intended to go, but the rain interfered.

Miss Frankie Heritage of Wieser, Idaho, is visiting at the home of her cousin Mrs. I. D. Wright of Estacada.

An enjoyable dancing party was held at the George Club last Saturday evening, with the Linn boys furnishing the music.

Born—July 10th, to Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Schultz of Eagle Creek, a twelve pound boy.
