

Play Shed Open Saturdays Only

As the attendance on Wednesdays and Saturdays at the Estacada school play shed, has been light during the past few weeks, the Parent Teachers' Assn., which has conducted the play shed during the vacation season, announce that hereafter the shed will only be open on Saturday afternoons, from 1:30 to 4:30 o'clock.

Mill Takes On New Partner

Park and Closner of Estacada last week bought out the interest of John Wink, in the Gordon-Wink mill, which is now operating on the C. C. Saling property, near Estacada.

For the summer, Will Closner will give his attention to the cutting of ties at the mill, while his partner, Jas Park will conduct the Estacada business.

The combined forces of Will Closner and Hal Gordon, should result in added output for the mill, as both are experienced men in the business.

His Majesty The King

Next Thursday evening's program at the Estacada Family Theatre promises to be an excellent one, with a three reel Thanhouser drama, entitled "His Majesty The King" as the main attraction, featuring Gladys Hulette, Bert Delaney and the Thanhouser kids. George Ovey, in "The Hold Up", will furnish the comedy part of the program.

An extra good program is also promised for Saturday evening. All shows start at 7:30 P. M. presenting two complete performances.

Two Sons In Service

Mrs. J. A. English of Garfield may justly be proud of the patriotism shown by her family, with two sons now in the government service.

Mrs. English last week received a letter from her son Glenn, who is now stationed at Nogales, Ariz., being a member of Company E. of Idaho.

Cyde English, who recently joined the navy, is now located at the U. S. Training School at San Francisco and reports good health and an enjoyment of the work.

Note:—Horseshoeing at the old prices on 4's and 5's.

School Bonds Burned

While the members of the Estacada school board hate to see anything go up in flames, especially with the price of paper steadily rising, little regret was expressed at their recent meeting, when over $5,000 worth of paid up school bonds were reduced to ashes.

The members of the Estacada city council, only wish that they could add to the next conflagration, about $10,000 worth of municipal water bonds, but being water bonds in every sense, nothing short of redemption will dispose of them.

Livestock Shipment Aug. 7th

Owing to a slight scarcity of livestock, buyer Givens of Estacada was unable to make a carload shipment this week, but announces he will make a one carload and possibly two carload shipment from the Estacada yards, next Monday noon, August 7th. Parties having stock for sale are asked to notify Mr. Givens.

Country Club Picnic Aug. 12

All residents of Clackamas County are cordially invited to bring their lunches and arrange to spend all day Saturday, Aug. 12th, at the annual picnic of the Garfield Country Club, to be held on the club's grounds.

No announcement is forthcoming yet as to the program for the event, but a good time is promised, with games, sports and dancing assured.

For years past, this annual frolic has been one of the enjoyable summer fetes, with hundreds of families attending from all sections of this community.

A 50c dance will occur in the evening, with good music promised. Make your arrangement now to take off this whole day and enjoy it with your friends and neighbors.

$80.00 Cut In Price

If the price of Ford cars keeps on getting lower, the time will someday come when even an editor can afford to drive an automobile of his own.

J. W. Reed of the Estacada Garage came tearing into the News office Tuesday morning, with happiness sticking out on all corners of his countenance and announced that he had just received a communication from the Ford factory, stating that a cut of $80. in the price of the popular five passenger Ford touring car had been made effective August 1st, with a reduction of $46. on the runabouts.

This reduction in price, coupled with a limited supply of machines, now on the Oregon market, should result in many local purchases within the coming month.

Peppermint Culture Urged

O. C. Twombly of Garfield, who is one of the pioneers in the culture of peppermint in this state, is now anxious to interest others in the growing of this profitable medicinal crop.

As the success of this industry, as is the case in others, is largely due to the production of the oil in sufficient quantities to attract the buyers from distant points, Mr. Twombly is making the following special offer to any farmers in this section, who will plant and care for an acreage:—he will furnish free this fall, all of the plants necessary, having on hand sufficient to cover ten acres. Mr. Twombly advises planting in October, in half to acre patches, with a profitable crop returned the coming season.

It is reported that the Stanley Turel ranch in upper Dodge was recently traded, with the Turel family moving to California within a few weeks.
