BERT H. FINCH Estacada, Oregon

Mrs. F. E. Bishop and little daughter Elizabeth and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Erickson were guests at the J. R. Hughes home in Currinsville last week, having motored out from Portland.

Walter Givens of Estacada, at the request of the pastor of the Woodlawn Church of Portland, will occupy the pulpit there next Sunday evening, delivering the address which he recently gave before the state conference of the Christian Church at Turner, Oregon.

O. C. Klaetsch of Springwater, this week purchased a three and one-half ton Averill motor truck, which is being used in the hauling of lumber from their mill to the Estacada shipping point, and which will also be used in the handling of logs.

Harry Irvine, a former member of the Estacada High School faculty, spent a couple of days visiting here this week.

Boysen In Jail

Wednesday's papers report that Fritz Boysen, the famous Milwaukie nuisance and booze peddler, was arrested Tuesday evening at his former resort, the Hotel Belle and placed in jail at Oregon City.

Boysen was sentenced in Judge Campbell's court some time ago to pay a fine of $500, and serve six months in jail, for violations of the prohibition law, with the latter part of the sentence later revoked, with the understanding that Boysen leave Clackamas County and stay away. Inasmuch as he violated the court's decree, Sheriff Wilson picked him up Tuesday.

The history of the Boysen prohibition infractions has been a more or less joke affair with the residents of this county, as Boysen has usually escaped serious punishment each time; but possibly now with Sheriff Wilson in charge, Fritz will find out that there is one official that means to enforce the law.

Merchandise Contest Ends

With the final count of the judges, Mrs. L. E. Belfils, W. H. Holder and Rev. Spiess, Wednesday afternoon, the following prizes were awarded the contestants having received the greatest number of votes.

First prize, a mahogany piano, Mrs. Harold Wooster Estacada.

Second prize, solid oak dining room set,

Mrs. S. D. Fleming, River Mill. Third prize, Lorain steel range, M. E. Church, Estacada.

Fourth prize, Quartered oak bedstead

Lucile Jones, Estacada

Fifth prize, Leather easy chair, Mrs. Theo Harders, George.

Sixth prize, 9 x 12 Brussels rug, Mable Keller, Dodge.

The participating merchants wish to thank all contestants for their efforts and only wish that prizes could have been awarded to all.

While the contest was not as satisfactory as the merchants anticipated from the buyers' standpoint, it nevertheless was instrumental in greatly stimulating home buying and represented in a way the desire of the home merchants to allow their patrons the benefit of the usual 2% discount, allowed for cash.

Following is a list of contestants and their respective standing in the Thousand Dollar Merchandise Prize Voting Contest, as shown by the judges' count, ending Wednesday noon, Aug. 2.
