TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:—

In relinquishing the management of the Springwater Store of the W. J. Lewellen Estate, by reason of its sale to F. Madden & Co., I desire to thank my patrons and friends for the pleasant relations that have existed between us, the memory of which I shall always cherish and I trust that the same support will be extended to my successor.

TRUE INWARDNESS OF THE VERA CRUZ INCIDENT.

In the spring of 1914, occurred the capture of Vera Cruz. Men from one of our ships had been arrested at Tampico and had been discharged with an apology. But our admiral demanded a salute, which was refused. Thereupon the president went to congress, asking authority to use the armed forces of the United States. Without waiting for the passage of the resolution, Vera Cruz was seized. It appeared that a shipload of ammunition for Huerta was about to enter that port. There was a natural opposition to this invasion and a battle occurred in which nineteen Americans and over a hundred Mexicans were killed. This, of course, was war. Our dead soldiers were praised for dying like heroes in a war of service. Later, we retired from Vera Cruz, giving up this noble warfare. We had not obtained the salute which was demanded. We had not obtained reparation for affronts. The ship with ammunition which could not land at Vera Cruz had soon landed at another port, and its cargo was delivered to Huerta without interference. Recently the naked truth was admitted by a cabinet officer. We are now informed that "we did not go to Vera Cruz to force Huerta to salute the flag." We are told that we went there "to show Mexico that we were in earnest in our demand that Huerta must go." That is, we seized Vera Cruz to depose Huerta. The question of the salute was a mere pretext.—From Mr. Hughes' Speech of Acceptance

Enjoy Lecture on Japan

P. A. Smith, wife and baby, who are on a furlough in this country, after 13 years work in Japan, were the guests for a few days early this week, at the home of their old friends, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Dillon of Garfield and Miss Gertrude Dillon of Estacada.

For the past ten years, Mr. Smith has been in charge of a government school in Japan, having originally gone to that country as an Episcopal missionary.

At the Zion Church last Sunday, Mr. Smith gave a very interesting and instructive talk on the life and customs of Japan, which was enjoyed by all who were fortunate enough to be present.

W. W. Porter of Upper Garfield takes exception to last week's statement in the News, to the effect that a bumper huckleberry crop is in sight this year. He claims that so far he has been unable to locate other than scattered patches. As reports from other parties show plenty of berries, it is likely the investigators have visited different parts of the mountains.
