Geo. Judd and some of his near neighbors had their threshing done last week. But most of the farmers over this way are still awaiting the coming of the threshers, and are not particularly pleased to have this rain at present.

Mrs. A. W. Cooke and Mrs. Sarah Dallas spent last Wednesday night with Mrs. S. F. Howlett.

James Gibson, accompanied by his son, H. F. Gibson, and grandson, Sam Wilson, paid a visit to his old home one day last week.

Roy Douglass and wife made a trip to Logan on Sunday.

Joe, Lena and Bobby Cahill, and their cousin, Mrs. Long, made a trip to the mountains last week after huckleberries, returning home with about 8 gallons.

Mr. and Mrs. Bow, of Portland, were the guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hill, over Sunday.

"The Smiling Club" met at the home of Mrs. D. Beckett last Wednesday afternoon. The name of the club was changed to that of "The Helping Hand;" the latter name being more appropriate, as the ladies are to help one another whenever possible. When the hostess has nothing she wishes done, they do fancy work, piece quilt blocks, etc. After spending a pleasant afternoon and partaking of a delicious lunch, the club adjourned.

Mrs. Mumpower, who was with Mrs. Howlett for two week's returned home last week.

PROMISE TO REDUCE THE COST OF LIVING NOT KEPT.

Our opponents promised to reduce the cost of living. This they have failed to do. But they did reduce the opportunities of making a living. Let us not forget the conditions that existed in this country under the new tariff prior to the outbreak of the war. Production had decreased, business was languishing, new enterprises were not undertaken, instead of expansion there was curtailment and our streets were filled with the unemployed. What ground is there for expecting better conditions when the unhealthy stimulus of the war has spent its force and our industries and workmen are exposed to the competition of an energized Europe?

It is plain that we must have protective upbuilding policies.—Mr. Hughes' Speech of Acceptance.
