

Over Half Million Trout Liberated

Through the efforts of the Estacada Rod & Gun Club and Warden Patton and with the volunteer aid of many local men and farmers, so far this year there has been liberated from the Eagle Creek Feeding Ponds and the River Mill Hatchery, over one-half million trout fry.

175,000 fry were liberated from River Mill and 400,000 from Eagle Creek, among the latter being about 200,000 eastern brook trout.

At merely the expense of hiring a driver to attend to the horses, many thousands more trout can be distributed in the various lakes in the mountains nearby, as the railway company, through their representative Frank Ewing, has offered the use of their pack horses in the work.

Again this year an effort is being made to interest the Multnomah Anglers' Club in the work, especially for financial aid, as the perpetuation of good angling in this country is of vital interest to Portland sportsmen, thousands of whom each year fish the nearby streams; in fact a hundred Portland fishermen enjoy the sport, where one local man goes fishing.

A farewell party was tendered in honor of Mrs. C. F. Frazier of Estacada on Wednesday afternoon by her fellow members of the C. I. C.

Dillon On The Border

The News is this week in receipt of a long letter from W. W. Dillon of Garfield, now stationed at Douglass, Arizona, where he is assisting in the work of the Army & Navy Department, of the Young Men's Christian Association.

The letter is an interesting one, describing the daily routine of the soldiers and the good work being carried on along the border by the Y. M. C. A. in furnishing amusements and help to the soldiers.

Mr. Dillon's portrayal of the camp life and the attitude of the enlisted men, shows a different phase of the subject and in some respects contrary to the published reports in the newspapers, in which the majority of soldiers are depicted as being perfectly contented.

The Y. M. C. A. work, consisting of established camps, furnishing libraries and correspondence facilities, lectures, moving pictures and similar recreation, is a welcome one to the enlisted men.

M. E. Church Holds Annual Meeting

At an adjourned session of the fourth quarterly conference, held at the Estacada M. E. Church, Monday evening, September 25th the business of the year was all settled and the pastor paid in full.

The session was one of harmony and enthusiasm and with a good attendance, augurs well for the coming year's work.

A standing vote of thanks was tendered the members, friends, Ladies Aid Society and business men for their splendid support.

Do You Practice Economy

In Clothes Buying

The first consideration is the Cloth, which should be Wool.

Secondly, it should contain Reliable Fast Dyes.

Third, it should Hold its Shape and to do this, it must be made to Fit Your Figure.

Fourth, the Style should conform to your Build.

Fifth, the Price should be based on Value Received.

Steinman Chases The Pup

Several of Estacada's speed demons are now drawing favorable comparisons between their behavior in driving down the straight and narrow road at 40 miles per and the more sedate dog-trot speed used by John Steinman of Currinsville, while pursuing a pup off the straight and narrow highway.

The story goes that J. P. Steinman, accompanied by Mrs. Steinman in the Ford car, attempted to play tag with Cleve Heiple's dog and during the excitement, the dog forgot the rules and ran into a ditch, with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. and machine following. No one was hurt, although the dog was tagged and the machine needed a few repairs.
