Estacada Stages Round-Up

If Herb Huxley and his high jumping Black Pole steer had pulled off the stunt at the Pendleton Round-up, that they staged on Estacada's streets last Monday, it would have been a drawing card, even in that city of thrilling buckaroos.

Herb, Ray and Curt Wilcox Monday morning brought to the Estacada stock yards about twenty head of cattle, for shipment to Portland. These animals were not of the front yard, dairy pet variety, but real old ripsnorting range cattle, having been raised among the tall timber and down logs in the mountains beyond Garfield.

The morning parade was a tame affair, with the herd peacefully meandering down the city's streets to the yards, but when the gate was once closed, the fireworks began, with one big 1400 lb black steer, acting like an embonpoint society dame, by refusing to get onto the scales.

The animal, which during its mountain roamings had emulated the deer in jumping logs and the nimble chamois in scaling the crags, made one tall jump completely clearing the six foot fence and starting for up town, with three of as good horsemen as there are in this country, trailing behind.

The animal was corraled near Harkenriders, when it started for down town, with Huxley and his horse leading at the end of a rope, and far exceeding the speed ordinances. With a crowd of school boys and men trailing behind, the maddened animal nearly upset a buggy on Second St., ran into a wood-rack near the railway tracks, arriving at the yards with a gashed flank but plenty of fight left.

The first meeting this year of the Parent-Teacher Association was held last Thursday evening. It was a social meeting with a short program consisting of a vocal solo by Miss Helen Bartlett, and brief talks on co-operation by Mrs. Devore and Mr. Guthrie.

The Freshman Class was delightfully entertained last week at a wiener-roast given by the members of the Invincible and Crusader classes of the M. E. Sunday School.

The first foot-ball game of the season was played last Friday afternoon by the Adelphic and Websterian society teams. Owing to there being more inexperienced than experienced players the game was much slower than the usual society games. The Websterians won by the score of 13 to 0.

Quite a number of students have returned this week to again take up studies in E. H. S.

Carl Meilike and wife of Elwood have moved from his mother's, home, in search of work.

THE GOOD JUDGE SEES A MAN GO TO THE NEXT STORE.

IF YOU HAVEN'T W-B CUT YOU CAN'T HAVE MY DIME.

IM SORRY IM OUT OF IT. HERE'S THE KIND YOU USED TO USE.

A TIP TO YOU, MR DEALER. DON'T RUN OUT OF THE KIND YOUR CUSTOMERS WANT AND YOU WON'T RUN OUT OF CUSTOMERS.

HERE and there you run across a store keeper who's got the idea that all the common sense in town is on his side of the counter. He don't keep W-B CUT Chewing nor any of the new and better things. Somehow he can't increase his trade. Nearby is a man who believes in the people. He keeps all the good things—he's a success. He finds men changing over to W-B CUT right along. Common sense told him they would change to the rich little chew that lasts and satisfies.
