Get Busy This Is Your
LAST CHANCE
To Trade In That Old Cream Separator

On a new Automatic Oiling De Laval

If your old machine is a De Laval it has paid for itself many times over. If it is a "CREAM THIEF" separator, the sooner you get rid of it the better.

ON NOVEMBER 1ST, 1916

the allowance heretofore made for old machines taken in trade on new DE LAVALS will be discontinued.

Why not take advantage of the opportunity between now and Nov. 1st, as no allowance will be made for old machines after that date.

dies of the C. I. C., under whose auspices the musical parts were handled, these taking part being Miss Helen Bartlett of Estacada; Rev. C. F. Aue of Springwater and Messrs. Whitcomb, Standish, Reid and Reid of Garfield.

The music by the Garfield band was greatly enjoyed by all.

Friday's main attraction was the baby show in the forenoon, with over a score of babies in competition. The judges, being Mrs. Wellman of Palo Alto, Calif.; Mrs. Geo. W. Kiger of Tillamook and Mrs. J. L. Hewitt of Portland, finally awarded the grand sweepstakes prize to Beverley Bronson of Estacada. The other winners in their respective divisions being Lois Ruth Smith of Estacada; Edward Shearer, Jr., Arnold Anders and Winifred Stephens of Garfield; James Victor Kitching of Currinsville and Dorothy Evelyn Bittner of Springwater.

The football game between Estacada High School and Franklin High School of Portland on Friday afternoon climaxed the fair's amusements and despite the outcome of 41 to 0 against the home team, the contest was exciting.

Many out of town visitors attended the fair, among them being editor Brodie of the Oregon City Enterprise, attorney J. N. Sievers, N. C. Maris of the state board of education, several railway officials and others.

The following represents a digest of the awards made in the various classes and divisions and reference to the printed premium lists will furnish further details:

LOANS PLACED ON PORTLAND PROPERTY

Mosessohn & Mosessohn

714-715-716 Chamber of Commerce Bldg.
PORTLAND, OREGON

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Drill of Estacada are returning next week to Eugene, where they will make their future home. In the removal of Mr. and Mrs. Drill from Estacada, the community is the loser, as both have been closely identified with church and social matters for the past year and made many close friendships.
