In administering the famous "Wagner Flops", to one of the Milwaukie players, Otis Wagner our well known foot-ball star, was so seriously injured that he will be out of the game for the rest of the season. We regret very much the loss of Wagner, as he has been the "back-bone" of the team for the last two years.

We are sorry to report the illness of Harold Young who is suffering from an attack of pneumonia. This temporary loss of "Professor" as he is commonly called, is felt by the foot-ball team as well as the school.

With Wagner and Young out of the game, gloom prevails in E. H. S. over the chances for victory against the fast Camas,

Wash. team, which we will meet on the athletic field here next Saturday.

The Adelphic Literary Society rendered a very interesting program last Thursday afternoon.

Alta and Alpha Hinman will enter the High School as Juniors this week.

One of the Juniors who will try out for oratory and debate, went to Portland, Sat. to study from material in the city library.

An enjoyable surprise party was given last Thursday evening by the Order of the Eastern Star, in honor of the birthday of Miss Eva Wash of Estacada.

Make no other arrangements for Thanksgiving night, for everyone is invited to the opening C. I. C. Dance at the Estacada Pavilion.

Mrs. T. C. Jubb, who last week was taken to Oregon City for medical treatment, is reported to be slightly improved but still in a serious condition. Mr. Jubb, who accompanied her, is remaining in Oregon City.

Miss Rose Tannler of Portland spent Sunday at the parental home.

Ed Boner of Estacada, among his collection of photos of local scenes, has a fine picture of the E. H. S. football squad, which should be an ornament to every student's room.

Henry Johnson of George was a recent Portland visitor in the interests of the George Presbyterian Church, which is now arranging for a pastor.

A Candidate Of Sterling Worth And Ability

F. B. Madison Tells What He Thinks Of C. W. Risley, Democratic Candidate For County Commissioner

Fred B. Madison, the Oregon City real estate dealer, who lives at Meldrum station, and who has a wide acquaintance throughout Clackamas county, has been a neighbor of C. W. Risley, democratic candidate for county commissioner, and he is doing everything that he can to aid in the election of Mr. Risley, because he considers the latter one of the best qualified men in the county to have in the court house. Mr. Madison says that the better acquainted one becomes with Charles Risley, the more they appreciate the worth and sterling qualities of the man. He counts the people of Clackamas county as indeed fortunate in having the opportunity to vote for such a man, one who can be depended upon to give the county his best efforts as a commissioner just as he has done in the matter of road supervisor, where his roads are the envy of all other supervisors of the county.

C. W. Risley

Mr. Madison says:

"Having been a neighbor of Charles and also having had more or less business relationship with him, I count him as one of the squarest and most upright citizens that I ever dealt with. He has made a success of his own affairs, handling them in a manner that proves him a business man of keen insight into all matters, and I feel that as county commissioner he would be able to bring to the taxpayers such management of county affairs as would spell not only economy, but also the greatest and most lasting results at a minimum of expense. I have no hesitancy in saying that I feel the taxpayers will be making a grave mistake if they do not elect Mr. Risley, when a man of his ability and standing is willing to heed the call of his neighbors and friends to run for an office which does not begin to remunerate him for time and labor spent. Clackamas county has no better citizen nor one who is more vitally interested in its welfare and he should be elected by a rousing majority."
