Devil's Washboard

A Thing Of The Past

That abominable stretch of highway between Eagle Creek and Barton, which had been nicknamed the Devil's Washboard, owing to its roughness, is now a matter of history or will be within a short time, as under the direction of Road Boss Roots, it has been scarified, graded and rolled, until today it more nearly resembles an ironing board.

Good work has also been done on the Boring Hill Road, the lower part of the grade having been modulated, good drainage created and considerable crushed rock and gravel rolled in. While the upper end of the hill is still in poor condition and may receive some work yet this year, the terrors of the hill are now done away with and the glad news should be heralded to all local and Portland autoists.

place in Garfield, Mrs. Dunlop remaining over until the middle of
