Record Of Republican Candidates

absolutely fair and impartial. He is a farmer and having had considerable experience in farm values in different sections of the county will bring experience to the office that will be of much value to the county. He will surround himself with competent help so that the work will be kept up to the highest state of efficiency. Mr. Everhart has been a member of the Molalla school board for the past eight years, is secretary of the Molalla Telephone company and has been on the Clackamas county fair board for eight years.

Dudley C. Boyles, candidate for county recorder, who appears on the ticket practically unopposed, has been a resident of the county for a good many years, being well known in the Molalla country, where he was book-keeper for Robbins Bros., general merchandise for a long time. He has been deputy county recorder for the past two years, and during this time proved himself capable and efficient and in every way worthy of the confidence of the people of Clackamas county. This has had much to do with his nomination by his own party as well as his being unopposed by the other parties.

Being identified as he is with agriculture, timber and financial interests which keep him busy, as well as his large ranch of which a hundred acres are in cultivation, W. A. Proctor of Sandy, candidate for county commissioner, is in a position to know the wants of his fellow-citizens. A man who has paid heavy taxes and gone through the mill of helping to build good roads where once existed the old mud streams of thoroughfare in Oregon, not only understands the needs of his fellow-citizens in the way of county improvements, but he also, as a taxpayer, understands the value of each dollar to be expended in improvements; and as a handler of finances and the employer of a large number of men, his ability to handle the two together by the most economical method cannot help but be of benefit to any county or community on which he would seek to employ his time and talent.

Mr. Proctor is prominently identified with many of the industries that are working so hard to build up and make things of benefit to the county and the farmers in his immediate vicinity.
