Banjo Music For Steps

A big all night dance is advertised to occur Saturday evening, November 11th at Cogswell's Hall in Eagle Creek, to which everyone is invited.

Steib's four piece Portland orchestra will furnish the music and in addition, as a special feature, banjo music will be played for all one-steps and other step-dances, with special violin music for the waltzes.

Six In Six Get One

A party of six hunters, comprising Will and Charles Kandle of Cloverdale, W. A. Jones, A. Benson and E. S. Womer of Estacada and a neighbor of the Kandle's, returned last week from a six days hunting trip in the mountains near Cloverdale.

One lone buck is all the game that fell before the marksmen, being killed by Will Kandle, with the others covering many miles of mountain sides, with an occasional long distance shot.

Wagner Bags Two Bucks

P. M. Wagner of Estacada returned home Sunday from a hunting trip in the mountains, with a supply of venison and a story of having killed two yearling bucks, said story being verified by the other members of the party, Art Perry and H. B. Davis of Garfield, who were less fortunate.

Mrs. Frank Thomas of Garfield spent a few days this week at Albany, Oregon, where her daughter Echo, is reported to be rapidly improving under the treatments of a specialist.

Butchering Tri-Weekly

The newly built butchering plant on the Henry Githens' place in Currinsville, being conducted by Livestock Buyer Kerkes of the Montavilla Livestock Company of Portland, is now in full operation.

Three times each week, one of the expert butchers of the company comes to the plant and slaughters such animals as are needed for the Portland trade and as the plant is thoroughly up to date and the butcher is an adept in the art, these tri-weekly affairs are attracting attention.

Archie Yocum of Garfield is the latest recruit among the Ford drivers, having last week purchased a touring car from the Estacada Garage.

Women Turn Out

To Discuss Measures

The C. I. C. meeting at the club rooms last Saturday afternoon, to discuss the various measures and amendments to be voted upon at the coming election, received an attendance in excess of expectations.

Mrs. C. W. Devore of Estacada, who was in charge of the discussions, spent the entire afternoon thoroughly covering the various questions, and an interested audience of women from Estacada and surrounding country, asked many questions and are now in a position to comprehensively vote the ballot and prove that women's suffrage was a wise move.
