Mail Service Upset

A slight delay occurred last Friday in the mail delivery on Route 1 out of Estacada, owing to the frolicsomeness of Carrier Demoy's mule, which after taking fright at a passing motorcycle, upset the cart, carrier and contents, on the Taylor Hill in Currinsville.

As the lines were tied to the seat and the seat was broken off, the mule, lines and seat were corralled near Yount's store and turned over to their owner, who has since been severely disciplining his steed.

Bank Bids In Paving Bonds

With the legal phases of the Estacada bond issue, for the paving of Broadway, satisfactorily passed upon by Portland bond attorneys this week, the bid of the Estacada State Bank, has been accepted and the money paid over.

The successful bid amounted to par, plus $1. and accrued interest, subject to the satisfactory report of a recognized bond attorney as to their legality.

More Residents Appeal To Law

Believing that the only remedy to settle minor controversies, lies in bringing their cases before a Justice Court, two suits are now underway, one between O. P. Caffiff of Garfield and Chris Johnson of George over a disagreement on a potato deal and the other between Will Kaake and Jas. Smith of Estacada over the settlement of a wood contract.
