Boys To Be Arrested

It is a poor reflection on the City of Estacada and a gang of its grammar school boys, when Mgr. Laurry of the Estacada Hotel has had to appeal to the authorities in the case of a band of school boys who last Tuesday night, deliberately shattered the electric globes in eight of the park lamps.

This is not the first time such maliciousness has occurred, as Mr. Laurry states that these same boys, whose names he knows, have broken the electric lights and committed other nuisances about the Estacada Park before.

As to whether Mr. Laurry will go ahead and enforce the law on the guilty parties remains to be seen, but the parents of the boys, if notified, should lay on some suitable punishment, especially as this wanton destruction was done on railway property and property which on that night was donated to the use of the people.

Danced In Court.

An unusual scene was once witnessed in a French law court, the civil tribunal at Nantes. The proprietor of a local theater had engaged a young lady dancer, whose performances at rehearsals did not come up to his expectations. He therefore would not let her appear, and the fair dancer took action against him for breach of contract. The defendant alleged that she had not even learned the first steps of her art, and, here being a plain issue, the judge determined to decide for himself. A space was accordingly forthwith cleared on the floor of the court, and in these unusual surroundings the young lady duly went through her steps and pirouettes. In the result the judge felt justified in certifying that she was quite an expert dancer and decided the case in her favor. Henceforth she advertised herself as the only dancer in the country with a legal certificate of proficiency.

How Leap Year Started.

Hampson in his "Medli OEVI Kalandarium" quotes the following quaint tradition from an old Saxon treatise: "Some assert that the bissextus or leap day comes through this, that Joshua prayed to God that the sun might stand still for one day's length that he might sweep the heathen from the land that God had granted him and his followers. It is true that the sun did stand still for one day's length over the city of Gebaon, but the day went forward in the same manner as other days. And the bissextus is not through that, as some do think."

In France and some parts of Spain and Portugal there exists a tradition known as "the ghost of leap year." Believers in this say that a marvelous monster annually appears on leap day and disarranges human affairs for the remainder of the year.

Gave Warning.

Wife—Well, dear, I shall have to do the cooking now. Cook left without warning this afternoon. Husband—Not exactly without warning. She told me this morning I had better bring home some dyspepsia tablets tonight, but I didn't quite understand what she meant.—London Tit Bits
