Motorists Contribute to Complete Road.

In an effort to raise sufficient money to complete the graveling of the lower part of the Amer-saker Hill, commonly known as the Boring Hill Road, D. S. Fleming of Estacada has obtained one dollar subscriptions from the following autoists and requests that any other contributions that may be forthcoming, be left at the News' office, where the petition can be signed. H. V. Adix, D. S. Fleming, L. A. Wells, I. D. Wright, W. Givens, A. E. Sparks, J. F. Lovelace and C. W. Devore of Estacada; J. C. Peterson of Springwater; L. D. Walker and Tom Window of Portland; Bert Moore of Cazadero; R. H. Currin of Currinsville; Louis Baker and B. F. Cogswell of Eagle Creek and George Forman of Barton.

30c to C. I. C.

Ye editor, who last week had the self-appointed honor of passing the hat among the Estacada business men for the Election Night Carnival, wishes to report that of the entire $31 collected, $10 was paid out for moving pictures; $6.70 for election return service and $14 for the orchestra at the dance, with the balance of 30c turned over to the Civic Improvement Club, which organization was given permission to expend all or part of the donation as they desired.

Floral Agency Here

For years past it has always been a bother and nuisance to obtain cut flowers, blooming plants and floral decorations locally, with the nearest place of purchase being Portland.

But beginning this week, Miss Maud Sturgeon of the Estacada Pharmacy has taken the agency for Burkhart's, the well known Portland florists.

Hereafter parties desiring flowers or floral decorations may order same direct through the Estacada agent, and as the order will be transferred to Portland by phone, little time need elapse before delivery, and the cost will be no more than when dealing with the Portland florists direct.

A big crowd of dancers attended the dance at Eagle Creek last Saturday night and the added attraction of banjo music for the step-dances was thoroughly enjoyed. An even larger crowd is expected for the Thanksgiving eve dance, when the biggest dance of the fall season is promised.

Stanley Turel of Dodge last week purchased the Speedwell seven passenger car, which for the past few years has been the property of the Estacada Garage. The new owner contemplates driving to California with his family, where they will make their future home. The Dodge ranch having been given to Stanley, Jr., who will remain here.
