

House and Range Ready

It had been rumored this week that Fred Bartholomew of Estacada had rented the bungalow across from the Estacada Hotel, formerly occupied by Lee Bronson and family.

Our society reporter in an interview with the new tenant, learned that a new range had been purchased and installed in the new home, but a list of further appurtenances and equipment necessary to the conduct of a happy home, were not forthcoming this week, but the News hopes to add to this list of necessities in a later issue.

Jury Compromise Verdict

In the case of Califf brothers of Garfield vs. Chris. Johnson of George and Ed. Burnett of Portland, which came up for trial in Justice Devore's court last Tuesday, the jury comprising Messrs. F. J. Harkenrider, John Ely, P. F. Standish, Ed. Shearer, L. Hale and Fred Bartholomew, rendered a verdict which represented a fair compromise of the amount of money involved.

Under the condition, as the verdict favored both parties, it has yet left in doubt, which side won and which side still has to pay the court costs, so another suit to settle this item my result.

Jones' Auction Sale

There will be a sale at auction of the W. A. Jones' Livery Stable outfit, including horses, rigs, harnesses, saddles, pack-saddles, etc., on Saturday, November 25th, at the Jones' stables in Estacada.

Sale of Christmas Wares

On Saturday, November 25th at the club rooms in Estacada, the ladies of the C. I. C. will hold a sale of fancy articles, suitable for Christmas gifts.

All ladies are invited to call and look over the assortment of dainty wares and to enjoy refreshments which will be served during the afternoon.

Herman Wallace of Estacada, has rented the Shunkland place at Morrow Station, where he will hereafter reside. As Mr. Wallace in his capacity of Forest Ranger, keeps a string of saddle and pack horses, his renting of a good farm is an economy.

The George Social & Commercial Club had a business meeting and dance at the club house last Saturday evening, which was well attended.

Mrs. Walter Paulsen and daughter of Portland, visited her sister Mrs. Julius Paulsen of George this week.

Miss Flora Johnson of George is visiting among Portland friends this week.

Not content with having attained the qualities necessary for "standardization", the Currinsville school, under the direction of Miss Hoss, has now a noon-hour hot lunch for the pupils, with either hot soup or chocolate served daily, the pupils contributing 5c each every other week and donating the milk.

Eagle Creek Notes

Contributed

Last Tuesday Mrs. Viola Douglass went to Portland, spending the night with her daughter, Mrs. H. S. Jones, returning home Wednesday.

Mrs. Henry Udell received a call from R. B. Gibson and wife last Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim DeShazer were the dinner guests of Will Douglass and wife last Wednesday.

Mrs. C. Baker, of Estacada, who has been assistant nurse of Mrs. Howlett, for sometime, recently returned home, and her place is now being filled by Mrs. Jones, of Currinsville.

Mrs. S. J. Eddy, of Portland, accompanied by her sister-in-law, Miss Mildred Eddy, came out to Eagle Creek Sunday and spent the afternoon with her sister, Mrs. R. B. Gibson.

Roy Douglass and wife were the Sunday guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Flora Benson, of Logan.

Mrs. R. S. Clark entertained the Helping Hand Society at her home last Wednesday afternoon. A pleasant and social time was enjoyed by those present. After partaking of a dainty luncheon the Society adjourned. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Cahill, November 22nd.

The farmers are taking advantage of this good weather and are busy digging potatoes, plowing, etc.

Perry Murphey is helping Mr. Dhulst dig his potatoes.

Viola Breezes

Contributed

The Viola people tendered a surprise on Rev. Pogue last Friday evening. There were 27 present and each guest brought a pound of provisions and all spent a pleasant evening.

Mrs. John Ficken and brothers went to Oregon City Sunday to visit their mother, Mrs. T. C. Jubb, who is improving in health.

Ray Miller was duly elected constable by receiving the highest vote at the recent election, against a field of a dozen or more candidates. The result of this vote shows what Ray's friends think of him.

Rev. Pogue is holding revival services at the church every evening this week and as he is a powerful speaker, much good will result.

Thos. Eaden is keeping his machine busy these days hauling spuds to market and when eggs can be gotten, is handling these choice commodities which are selling at 55c per dozen.

Ralph Lemon, Lou Burd and Joe Pesznecker of Garfield and Estacada, left Monday for Bend, where they will be employed in lumber work.

Fred Bartholomew of Estacada has this week assumed an interest in the Walter Givens Company, Inc. and will hereafter be identified with the working force of that organization.

The Crawford brothers of Garfield Tuesday received an up-to-date manure spreader, for use on their farm, the implement having been purchased through the Finch Hardware Co. of Estacada.

The sympathies of his many friends are being extended to Dr. L. A. Wells of Estacada, who last week was summoned to Portland, owing to the death of his father, L. H. Wells, a well known newspaper man and resident of the East Side.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Coop and Mr. and Mrs. Foster of Osborne, Kansas, are visiting at the home of R. S. Coop of Currinsville.

A baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Gillotti of Eagle Creek, November 9th.

Ex Deputy Game Warden, Ben S. Patton of Estacada, last week had arrested and convicted in Justice Beck's court in Molalla, Walter S. Garrett of Colton, who was fined $25 and costs for illegal hunting of game out of season.

The transfer was last week recorded of Lot 3, Block 9, in Estacada, the property being sold to J. W. Reed by the Estacada State Bank. As this lot adjoins the Estacada Garage, it is likely that the Garage contemplates an early expansion to occupy the property.

Evans Buys Out Samson

Milton Evans of Estacada, who until this week has been connected with the Walter Givens Company, Wednesday purchased the interests of W. J. Samson in the flour, feed and lumber business of Allen & Samson of Estacada, the firm name being changed to Allen & Company.

We are sorry to announce that owing to unavoidable delays in receiving our shelving and fixtures for the new Grabateria Cash Store, our opening will have to be postponed until Monday, November 20th.

We extend a cordial invitation to our friends and former patrons to visit us on that day and let us explain our new system of lowering the high cost of living.

W. F. Cary, Mgr.