Eavesdropping.

Belle—She wouldn't stoop to listening to conversation through the key-hole of a door. Beulah—I know it. A party telephone wire is good enough for her.—Yonkers Statesman

Inevitable Conclusion.

"My wife is not at all fond of society."

"Oh, she does, does she?"

"Does what?"

"Her own dressmaking."

Victory.

"How happy the bride looks!"
"She has a right to look happy. His friends have been laying odds of 2 to 1 that she wouldn't land him."—Exchange.

J. Norris and family, who formerly resided near Barton, are now living in Estacada, having last week purchased the Oberstaller home and lots near the school grounds.

Victor Kitching, the 19 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kitching of Currinsville, was last week taken to a Portland hospital where an operation was successfully performed, which in medical phraseology is termed intussuseption.
