Childrens' Day Services

At the Estacada M. E. Church next Sunday morning, special Childrens' Day Services will be conducted.

The program will be in charge of the Beginners' Department and the initiation of a number of little children into the Cradle-Roll will take place.

This service will begin promptly at 11 o'clock and all parents are cordially invited to attend.

Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Adix of Estacada are entertaining a number of friends on Thanksgiving Day, among the guests being Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Dunlop of Portland.

John Page and ye editor of Estacada last Friday brought into town two baskets well filled with trout, the largest fish measuring 17 inches, having been caught in the Clackamas below River Mill. This catch proves conclusively that the successful angling of trout is not as scientific a matter as is generally claimed.

Mr. Edwin Hill of Denio, Oregon is a guest at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Irwin D. Wright of Estacada.

J. W. Moore and family of Cazadero last week moved to Estacada, having rented the cottage on Main St. owned by J. W. Reed.

Dances! Dances!! Dances!!!

The younger folks of this community are contemplating a strenuous Thanksgiving holiday, with the majority attending the big dance at Cogswell's Hall in Eagle Creek on Thanksgiving Eve and the C. I. C. dancing party at the Estacada Pavilion on Thanksgiving night. The public is invited to attend and enjoy the good times.

Leroy D. Walker of Portland was a business visitor in Estacada the first of the week.

Mildred Closner, the two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Closner of Estacada, last Friday drank an unknown quantity of turpentine, resulting in a sick child for a time, a couple of badly frightened parents and a busy doctor.
