Mrs. Chris. Bittner is working for her daughter Mrs. Ella Rotter who was operated on at the Oregon City Hospital, last week and is reported to be doing nicely.

The school teacher, Miss Springer spent Thanksgiving with her parents in Portland.

Norma Vallen of Oregon City High School, was home for Thanksgiving, remaining till Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Bittner visited her sister-in-law Mrs. Ella Rotter at the hospital Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rowan visited at the home of Mrs. M. Freeman a few days last week. Mr. Rowan being laid up with some crushed toes caused by being run over with a Donkey engine.

Josie Cadonau of Portland is visiting her sister Lilly Park.

Effie Cox is spending a few weeks in Oregon City the guest of her brother Stanford.

Walter Cox made a trip to Oregon City Sunday with their auto, taking Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilson, who have been visiting their daughter Eva for a few days and looking after the interest of his place, which he has rented out the past 7 years.

Rev. D. Tattman of Salem, Presiding Elder of the U. B. Church delivered three able sermons Saturday and Sunday at the Mt. Home Church.

Rev. A. S. Henderson of Philomath, Ore., visited his parents and sister a few days last week.

A number of men and ladies met last Saturday and partly finished the house shed at the church, that has been an eye sore for 4 or 5 years, the men doing the carpenter work and the ladies furnishing a fine dinner to which all did justice.

Grange Christmas Tree

The next regular meeting of the Garfield Grange will occur Saturday, December 23rd, when following the usual dinner, a Christmas program will be given.

It is planned to have a regular old fashioned Christmas Tree and a real live Santa Claus, with presents galore for all of the people of the community.

Everyone is invited to attend this meeting and urged to bring the children.

Carload Shipment of Prune Trees

Estacada and especially the Garfield country is fast building up a reputation as a section noted for the growing of nursery stock, especially prune trees.

On Wednesday a carload shipment was made from here by the O. W. Failing Nursery of Garfield, the young trees being shipped to Portland wholesale dealers.

This shipment comprised 15,000 trees, Mgr. Failing retaining a few hundred choice ones at the nursery for the supplying of the local trade, which has grown rapidly in the past two years.

Mrs. Maud Graham of Estacada spent Thanksgiving in Seattle, where she visited her daughter Miss Irma Graham, who is attending the University of Washington and her son Guy, who is employed there. Mrs. Graham took with her, Florence June and Mary Alice Reed, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reed, who visited their sister Rachel, who also is attending the University.

Too Much Ambition.

"I can't understand why you discharged my boy. You advertised for a boy with ambition, and he—"

"That's just it, madam, that's just it. He wasn't in the place two days before he had his feet on my desk and was smoking my cigars."

The Sacrifice.

Mrs. Richleigh (scornfully)—I wish you had more brains, Ferdinand, instead of so much money. Ferdinand (unmoved)—I did once, dear, but it took all of them to get money.

"Your Satisfaction Is Our Success"

The sympathies of his many friends are extended to Theodore Ahlberg of Estacada, who was called to his home in Oregon City last Wednesday, owing to the sudden death of his father. During his absence, the Estacada station was in charge of Mr. Lamb of the railway company's Portland office.

The Thanksgiving night dance at the Estacada Pavilion brought out one of the biggest crowds of any event of the year, with about 75 couples enjoying the dancing. The affair netted the Civic Improvement Club $32 after deducting all expenses.

Ken Bartlett of Estacada, spent a day last week at the parental home, following the U. of O.—Multnomah football game on Thanksgiving. Ken, who is a member of the championship U. of O. eleven, will spend his coming Christmas vacation in Southern California, where the team will meet the University of Pennsylvania on New Years Day at Pasadena.

A combination birthday and Thanksgiving dinner was held at the C. C. Saling home in Currinsville last Sunday, with several Estacada and Springwater friends as guests.
