

Yule Song

High are hearts in hut and hall—
Cry "Noel!" sing "Noel!"
And in stall
Lowly kneel the cattle all.
To the merry Yuletide bell
Shout "Noel!"

Bees in slumber buried deep
Cry "Noel!" sing "Noel!"
Out of sleep
Into mellow murmur leap
To the joyous Yuletide bell
Shout "Noel!"

At the dawning if ye mark—
Cry "Noel!" sing "Noel!"
Ye may hark
Voices in each airy aro—
To the blessed Yuletide bell
Shout "Noel!"

Angels that with triumph thrill
Cry "Noel!" sing "Noel!"
Echoing still
"Peace on earth, to men good will!"
To the gladsome Yuletide bell
Shout "Noel!"

—Clinton Scollard in Lippincott's.

George Goes On Contributed

The new house of Nick Rath is fast nearing completion and when finished will be one the most comfortable attractive farm homes in the community. The work is being done by Carl Lins of George.

A needed addition has been completed at the George Club house, by the addition of rooms at the ends of the stage and work is now going forward in the building of tie-sheds in the adjoining grove.

Mrs Peter Rath spent a few days in Portland last week, visiting her sister and friends.

Three Christmas programs are scheduled for the next week, being an entertainment and program at the school on Friday night; a similar affair at the church on Saturday evening and big festivities at the club house on Tuesday evening the 26th.

Clyde English, formerly of Garfield, is now stationed on U. S. S. Brooklyn, which is located at Shanghai, China. In a recent letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. English of Garfield, he is enthusiastic over his work in the Navy and especially is enjoying his views of the distant parts of the world.

A Carol

Of old, wise men to the manger came,
Bearing their gifts, both precious and rare.

At the feet of an infant they laid them down

As they breathed glad words of praise and prayer.

Of old, of old, in Bethlehem town
Wise men and kings laid their offerings down.

Of old, the shepherds on Judea's
plains,

Watching their flocks in the cheerless night,

Saw in the east a great Star shine,
And they left their watch to follow its light.

Of old, of old, how bright the Star
That guided the wondering shepherds afar!

Of old, the voices of angel choirs
Sang the joy of a Saviour's birth,
And the glory of God shone bright around

As they chanted their message of
"Peace on earth!"

Of old, great joy to the world was given

When Christ the Lord came down from heaven.
