TAXPAYERS FAVOR NEW HIGH SCHOOL

Mass Meeting Votes Favoring
Building to Cost $20,000. or Over.

On Monday evening at the Estacada school assembly hall was held a meeting of the taxpayers of the Estacada school district, with an attendance of about one hundred.

After a brief explanation of the objects of the meeting presented by Chairman Jorg and Board Member, J. W. Reed, an expression from the taxpayers was requested on the subject of the erection of a new high school building, in the school grounds, adjoining the present building.

As occasionally occurs at local gatherings, the response for a time resembled the roll-call at a deaf and dumb institution, the lull being finally broken by Mrs. C. W. Devore, who expressed her ideas of certain requirements which should be included in the proposed new high school building. Similar suggestions were made by Mrs. E. W. Bartlett, especially urging the including of a swimming tank.

From then on, many taxpayers joined in the talks and as the result of a standing vote, it was the consensus of the meeting that a new building should be erected in the near future.

Two Portland architects displayed and explained plans for high school buildings, a lot of which were meritorious and on a second rising vote, the taxpayers went on record as favoring the erection of a fire-proof building, of hollow

No definite action was taken at this meeting, but the expression obtained from the taxpayers will be an aid in the future plans of the school board, which will be announced later.

Announcements are made of a dance to be given at Cogswell's Hall in Eagle Creek, on January 20th, under the auspices of the Portland Railway Carmen, to which all local people are invited.
