

$21,685.60 in Butchered Livestock

M. J. Kerkes, the genial livestock buyer for the Montavilla Livestock Company of Portland and who for the past year has been buying beef, veal and hogs in this community, reports having spent $21,685.60 among the farmers of this section, from July 1, 1916 to January 1, 1917.

Mr. Kerkes purchases comprise 299 head of cattle; 185 veal and 275 hogs, all of which were first butchered and dressed at the new butchering establishment in Currinsville and marketed through the four retail stores of the Montavilla Livestock Company in Portland.

The basket ball teams met with defeat in both instances. This was not surprising to either the teams or the coach, after arriving at Sandy and taking in the situation. We give Sandy the credit of playing a fair game and taking victory like good sports, hoping that they give us the same credit with regard to defeat.

The Senior cooking class are commencing a series of meals under the management of Miss Schrepel. A breakfast was served last Friday, a luncheon will be served this week and a dinner later on. Two girls take charge of each meal, one acting as host the other as hostess and planning their own menu. Each girl invites one guest.

E. H. S. lost two debates last Friday evening. The affirmative team lost to Milwaukie by the score of 2 to 1. The negative team went to Forest Grove and was defeated by the same score.

Remember the Junior Class play, given by the girls of the Junior Class and entitled "A Southern Cinderella." This is to take place Friday evening, January 26.

You should have heard ex-postmaster Johnson of Estacada last Monday practising up on his native tongue, preparatory to the meeting at Swede Hill that evening, but as all present at the meeting talked only U. S. A. English, Johnson got into the game and talked good old Clackamas County English too.

Gordon S. Taylor, formerly editor of the Molalla Pioneer, but now on the lecture platform, spent the week-end among friends in Estacada, following the presentation of his lecture "Dad" at the M. E. Church Saturday evening. Mr. Taylor's usual wit and humor, coupled with a fine style of presentation assures his future as a Chautauqua attraction.

A few of the Garfield farmers are taking time by the forelock in anticipation of the establishment of a cheese factory at Estacada and last week Elmer Davis and Ed Shearer made a short trip to Carlton, Oregon, bringing back a valuable pedigreed Jersey bull calf, for use on the Thos. Yocum farm.

Mesdames J. W. Reed and C. W. Devore of Estacada were hostesses last Monday evening at a farewell party given in honor of Rev. and Mrs. C. F. Aue of Springwater, who are leaving soon to make their home at Hunter, N. Y.
