Former Estacada Resident Dies

The following letter was received yesterday from Mrs. Anna Read of Portland, daughter of Mrs. Sarah E. Antrim who formerly resided in Estacada for about nine years, having moved to Portland over a year ago, following the death of her husband, J. W. Antrim. The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved survivors. —

"Mrs. Sarah Ellen Antrim, widow of the late John W. Antrim of Estacada, died at her residence No. 5 Shaver Street, Portland, Or., Jan. 18, 1917.

Mrs. Antrim was born in Ohio, seventy-four years ago.

At the age of twenty-four she was married to Mr. Antrim.

She is survived by two children, F. D. Antrim of Seward Alaska, and Mrs. Anna Read of the Ockley Green school in Portland. She also left one grandson, Lance Read, of Pittsburg, Penn.

At an early age she joined the Methodist Episcopal church of which she was a most devoted and consistent member.

On her last day, realizing the imminence of death, she asked that a chapter of the Bible be read to her. To her daughter she expressed her absolute confidence in God's promises and her joy at the prospect of meeting her Savior and the loved ones gone before.

In accordance with her wishes her funeral services were conducted with the utmost simplicity, being in charge of Dr. W. L. Kantner, pastor of the Pilgrim Congregational Church. Interment was in Mt Scott Cemetery by the side of her husband".

Liberty and Equality.

Liberty is never the fruit of philosophical deductions, but rather of everyday experience and of the simple ideas arising from facts.—Mirabeau.

Liberty—I say it with a sigh, men are perhaps not worthy of thee. Equality—they desire thee, but they cannot attain thee.—Turgot.

John o'Groat's to Land's End.

The distance in English miles between John o'Groat's, at the extreme north of England, to Land's End, in the farthest south, is about 480 miles as the crow flies, though by the ordinary lines of travel, of course, the distance is something more than that.

E. H. S. Echoes

Contributed

E. H. S. is looking forward to two possibilities which we hope will develop into realities; namely, a new county and a new school building. However, there is a reality before us which is not nearly as pleasant to look forward to; namely, semester examinations.
