Garfield Boys Go To Idaho

Glenn English, who has been in Garfield for the past few weeks having been called to the bedside of his mother, Mrs. J. A. English, left Sunday for his homestead near Joseph, Idaho, accompanied by John O. Duus of Garfield.

Glenn, who is a member of the Idaho militia, is returning to join his company, having had special permit to remain away owing to his mother's illness, while John Duus contemplates helping English on his homestead.

I. O. O. F. Notice

Grand Master Westbrook and Grand Conductor Weed will be in Estacada on an official visit, Saturday evening, April 7th, so all members are requested to be present early.

Mrs. J. P. Burkholder, an aunt of Mrs. W. H. Holder, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Holder of Estacada. Mrs. Burkholder has been a missionary in India for the past 51 years, and is returning to her former home in Minnesota, where she expects to remain indefinitely.

John Trachsel of Springwater, preparatory to the establishment of the cheese factory in Estacada is having plans drawn for a large new barn. Mr. Trachsel maintains one of the biggest dairy ranches in this section and has subscribed for as much stock in the Estacada cheese factory, as the by-laws will allow one stockholder to own.

Mr. and Mrs. Stubbs of Eastern Oregon, are visiting at the home of Jesse Stubbs in Faraday.

Special Farmer' & Merchants' Club Meeting Called For Monday, April 9th.

A special meeting has been called for Monday evening, April 9th, at Hotel Adams, when the Cheese Proposition will be thoroughly discussed by Mr. H. Chapman, Government Cheese Expert

Everyone is invited to be present and if you are coming to the dinner, please notify the Central Phone Office at once.

A crowd of the young folks of George gave a surprise birthday party on Leo Rath, last Thursday at his home. Refreshments and "500" were the entertainments for the evening.

John Cooper of George, a former resident of St. Johns, and who is residing on the Gilmore place, made a business trip to Portland last Saturday returning Wednesday.

Mrs. R. H. Currin of Currinsville, gave an afternoon luncheon for her mother, Mrs. G. B. Linn, in honor of her birthday, Saturday, March 24th.

The Springwater Presbyterian Church will have morning services, Sunday, April 8th, to which all are invited.

Another Livestock shipment was made from the Estacada yards, Wednesday, April 4th, for which some fancy prices were paid.

Among the names on the list of the automobile contestants, as being carried by the Evening Telegram appears the name of Mrs. B. O. Boswell of Estacada, who has the solid support of the Estacada Schools, and other organizations are asked to line up for one candidate for this district, which will keep this town's name before the public.
