A Correction

The statement in last weeks News, that J. M. Park of Estacada, who is a candidate for Councilman of the 5th ward, is running on an anti-herd-law platform, was an error—since corrected by Mr. Park, who says—"I am running on a platform, to do the wishes of the people and if the people vote in favor of or against the running at large of cattle—if elected, I will work to enforce the wishes of the public."

Otis Wagner and Carl Kimmel of the 3rd Oregon Infantry, now stationed at Clackamas, visited their homes in Estacada Wednesday and attended commencement exercises that evening.

Viola Breezes

Contributed

The last day of school on Friday was enjoyed by about sixty parents and friends of the school. A farewell family dinner was held at the home of grandpa Miller last week, in honor of his daughter, Mrs. J. Coberley of California, who has been visiting among friends and relatives for the past month, and who returned home this week.

Her Fame.

The Duchess of Westminster has the reputation of being the wittiest woman in society. The duchess tells an excellent story about an ex-shah of Persia who was very fond of paying compliments to English ladies.

When the Duchess of Westminster was presented he greeted her heartily. "I have heard much about you," he said. "Your worthy name is well known even in my country."

The duchess was surprised at first, then a light dawned upon her. "Gracious me, I do believe he mistakes me for Westminster abbey!" she said. What was more, she was right.

"How did you get Mrs. Bounce out of your bridge club? Did you ask her to resign?"

"No, we didn't like to do that, but we all resigned except Mrs. Bounce, and then we all got together and formed a new club."—New York Times
