Students Surprise Principal

An informal surprise party was given last Monday evening at the school play-shed by the high school students, with Prin. and Mrs. Guthrie as the guests of honor.

The entertainment and informal reception took the form of a farewell party, with the pupils presenting their guests with two picture plaques as reminders of their many school friends in Estacada.

Guthrie Enters Commercial Field

Following the closing of school on Wednesday, Prin. F. B. Guthrie, accompanied by Mrs. Guthrie and son, left for Salem Thursday, where they will make their future home.

Mr. Guthrie will begin at once his work with the Wittenberg-King Co. of The Dalles, who are now erecting a large plant at Salem. This well known firm are in the fruit and vegetable preserving and drying business and Mr. Guthrie will work among the growers in buying the produce.

For this work, Mr. Guthrie is especially adapted, with his knowledge of agriculture, together with his ability for hard work.

While the many friends here regret to have Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie leave Estacada, they congratulate him on his having obtained this lucrative and important position and wish him success in all ways.

Womans Grange Club

At 2 P. M. Friday, June 1st at the Central Library in Portland, will be held a regular meeting of the Woman's Grange Club.

All Clackamas County grange women are urged to attend this meeting and obtain the benefits of the club. An interesting program has been arranged, with Mrs. Edith Tozier Weathered presiding.

Springwater Grange Picnic

On Saturday, June 9th, on the Shibley ranch in Springwater, will be held the annual picnic of the Springwater Grange.

The speaker of the day will be Dr. Hector McPherson of the O. A. C., with other entertaining and instructive numbers on the program. Refreshments will be served and all are invited to attend.

Colonel and Mrs. J. C. Kilgore of Springwater are leaving this week for an extended visit in Chicago.
