E. H. S. Graduates 25

the play-shed Tuesday evening, were well attended and well up to the high school standard, with innovations on the program participated in by the Domestic Science and Manual Training pupils.

This class constitutes eighteen students of six girls and twelve boys, and will be but a small part of the Freshman high school class of next year, which it is expected will number over forty pupils, as many from the nearby rural schools have signified their intention of attending E. H. S. next Fall.

This class comprises the following pupils:— Bertha Devore, Zeona Coop, Thelma Eschelmann, George Douglas, Edith Harkenrider, Douglas Drill, Olive Humphrey, Albert Hannah, Lydia Matson, Ray Heipie, Lyla Mc Kenney, Otto Hoygaard, Raymond Lovelace, Max Sagner, Ralph Wade, Joseph Woodle, Virgle Yonce, Charlie Hinman.

With the closing of the current school year, Estacada may well be proud of its modern schools and the graduates turned out by E. H. S. will ever reflect credit on their alma-mater and the home town.
