Second Officers Reserve Camp

The second camp for the Western Department for the Officers' Reserve will be held at the Presidio Reservation, San Francisco and will open Aug. 27, 1917 and close Nov. 26, 1917.

Since the special object of these camps is to train a body of men fitted to fill the more responsible positions of command in the new armies, every effort will be made to select men of exceptional character and proved ability in their various occupations.

Every candidate must file his application in person with the Local Committee of the nearest Military Training Camps Association. These associations will be appointed in every town having a population of not less than 2500, within the eight states from which the candidates are to be drawn for the Presidio Camp. From these Committees application blanks can be secured. Information as to the identity and address of your nearest local Committee can be had from the cashier of any bank. The headquarters of the Military Training Camps Association for the Western Department can be addressed at 201 Pine St., San Francisco, Calif.

E Beats D

The baseball game of last Sunday afternoon in Estacada, between the crack regimental nines of Company D and Company E was played under good weather conditions and with a fair sized audience in attendance.

The company E boys won the game and until next Sunday, when another game will be played between the same teams, Co. E is singing the song of victory.

With the rivalry as strong as it now is between these teams, a good game is promised for next Sunday.

The Test That Tells

Driving the Chevrolet Special, R. C. Durant, vice president and sales manager of the Chevrolet factory, won second place in the annual speed carnival on the Tacoma Speedway July 4th. Durant was beaten out for first honors by a narrow margin by Patterson, the California speed king.

In order to defeat Durant, who suffered from tire trouble during the contest, it was necessary for Patterson to average better than ninety miles per hour for the entire distance. The public was more interested in the Chevrolet entry and its driver than any other contestant and although Durant was forced back to second place on account of tire trouble, he was a popular favorite throughout the race.

The Lins brothers furnished the music for the afternoon dance and Mr. and Mrs. Roberts of Dover played for the dance that night.

Soldiers Prove Delightful Hosts

Circle-Two Steps and Tag Waltzes never were so popular as at last Saturday evening's dance at the Estacada Pavilion, when the soldiers of Company D. were hosts to the people of this community.

Close to one hundred couples participated in the good time, with probably one half of the crowd made up of the uniformed hosts, many of whom had invited their girl friends from Portland to enjoy the affair.

The Bronson-Erickson orchestra furnished the music, which was first class and to add to the true hospitality of the dance, punch and wafers were served throughout the evening, with a dainty punch and cake supper at midnight, the cakes having been donated by the local ladies.

Those fortunate enough to have been present, as well as the people of this community, join in heartily thanking the soldiers for their hospitality and assure them that any imagined obligation, which they may have felt under to the local people, has been more than wiped out and an even closer friendship formed.

Guy E. LaFollette, editor of the Helena (Mont.) Independent, was an Estacada visitor last Saturday afternoon, leaving that night for Helena, where he has enlisted in the Administrative Corps of the U. S. Army.
