Brush At Road Turns Should Be Cut

At several places on the turns in the highways in this district there is a constant danger of accidents to autoists and drivers of other vehicles, due to the heavy brush obscuring the road ahead.

On the South side of the Eagle Creek bridge, this condition is present and as it is necessary for autoists to put on full speed in ascending the graded turn towards Alspaugh, a collision is possible, unless a clear view of the road is permitted.

The high brush needs cutting at the railroad crossing on the Heiple Road in Currinsville, where a view of the track towards Alspaugh is impossible to the driver coming from the west.

There are many other similar turns and brush obscured grades in this section, known best to the auto drivers, which should be safeguarded.

The following communication from the Adjutant General's Office in Portland explains the steps which will be taken from now on in carrying forth the provisions of the U. S. Army Draft:

"Within a few days official lists of the draft serial numbers, showing the order in which they were drawn in the lottery at Washington, will reach the various county exemption boards. Following receipt of these lists, the board will notify the men called up on the first draft.

Until then it will not be necessary for those subject to call on the first draft to report. But as soon as they receive notification from their boards, they must report promptly on the day designated.

The first step taken by each board will be to post in a conspicuous place a list containing the names of all the men registered in its county or district, in the exact order in which they will be called on the first and all succeeding drafts. A copy of this list will also be given the press for publication.

Let it be emphasized again that this list will have not only the names of the men to be called on the first draft, but of every man registered, in the order in which he must be called. No person whatsoever has any authority to change this order.

Having posted this list and given a copy to the press, the board will then notify by letter every man called up on the first draft. Each man will be directed to appear before the board for physical examination on a specified date, which will be within seven days of the mailing of the notice.

Failure to receive this notice will not be accepted as an excuse for not appearing on the date set. The burden of appearing when he is called is on the man himself; there is a heavy penalty for failure to answer the call.

Remember, that regardless of whether a man intends to apply for exemption or discharge, he must appear for physical examination on the day set. He has seven days from the posting of the list and the mailing of the notice to him by the board in which to file application for exemption, and 10 more days in which to file proof.

And, remember again, that no claims for exemption because of employment in necessary industries, including agriculture, can be considered by your county exemption board.

Such a claim must be made to one of the three district appeal boards, at Portland, Eugene, or LaGrande. It can only be made then after the man has passed his physical examination and been certified by the county board as called for military service and not exempt.

After you have appeared before your county exemption board and passed the physical examination, it will still be some time before you will actually be called out to join the army. You will be notified when it is time for you to report for service."
