Lodge Folks in Auto Accident

About ten o'clock last night (Wednesday), after an evening spent at the Rebecca Lodge weiner-roast in Lovell's Grove, Bob Currin of Currinsville, driving his Ford car containing Mrs. Owen Smith and son Walter, Mrs. Henry Spiess and son Frederick and Mrs. L. E. Belfils of Estacada, ran off the roadway bridge crossing Harkenrider Creek on the Estacada-Currinsville Road, with disastrous results.

Mr. Currin claims the accident was due to a defective steering gear. The result was the overturning of the car with the occupants spilled out, but luckily none was seriously injured, although Mrs. Smith received a broken collar-bone, Mr. Currin a bruised eye and strained arm and Mrs. Belfils a slight scalp cut.

Dances Sept. 1st and 8th

Attention is again called by the ladies of the C. I. C. to their harvest dance, occurring at the Estacada Pavilion, all night, September 1st. Good music and good refreshments are promised and all are invited to participate.

Posters are also out announcing a dance at Cogswell's Hall in Eagle Creek, Saturday evening, September 8th, to which all are invited.

Ken Bartlett Called to Colors

The Fourteenth Red Cross Ambulance Corps, known as the University of Oregon organization, has been ordered to American Lake on Sept. 1st.

In this corps is Ken Bartlett of Estacada, who holds a segeancy. Ken is now working in the harvest fields in Eastern Oregon, but will probably report with his company on time.

Mrs. W. A. Heylman of Estacada returned this week from a two weeks trip, visiting Seattle, Spokane and other points. Mrs. Heylman was the guest of her son, W. H. Heylman in Spokane, who has recently been appointed a Captain in the Quartermaster's Dept. The return trip was made by auto through Eastern Oregon, where the harvesting was a sight well worth traveling many miles to see.

Stop and See the Pig!

Red playcards reading "I Belong to the Boy's Pig Club—Stop and See My Pig" are now to be seen at the entrances to several farms in this community, these signs being furnished by the O. A. C. Pig Club officials, for the advertising of their members and their stock.

"Doc" Allen of the O. A. C., who is in charge of this important work among the boys of the state, was a visitor in this community last Saturday, where he investigated the work of the local club and examined their pigs.

"Doc" says, "The pigs being raised by the members of the Estacada Boys Pig Club are the best of any similar organization in the state and should be exhibited at the State Fair, where they should take prizes."

The members of the Estacada club are Ted Saling, Floyd Hale and Zeona Coop of Currinsville, Thomas McKay of Upper Eagle Creek, Gilbert Shearer and Arthur Duncan of Garfield, Victor Ficken of Springwater and Henry Dillon and Clyde Denny of Estacada.

For instance, Clyde Denny last year invested $50 in a Duroc sow and this spring sold seven of the offsprings for $10 each and now has his original sow and one boar, besides his profits.

Similar profits are due the other members of the club and the good ultimately done this community by these boys' efforts is far reaching.

Virgil Maffei of Eagle Creek took a bad fall from a horse early this week, resulting in a broken leg and knocked-out front tooth.

Mrs. C. C. Saling of Currinsville, entertained a number of friends at a chicken dinner last Sunday.

Miss Eunice Richards of Portland was a week-end guest at the J. W. Reed home in Estacada.
