

W. W. Dillon spent Friday, at his home in Garfield, returning Saturday to Vancouver, where he is in charge of the extensive Y. M. C. A. work in connection with the soldiers stationed there.

A. H. Standish, after a three months sojourn in Garfield and Estacada, at the homes of his sons P. F. and R. M. Standish, left Saturday for his home at Oak Park, Illinois. Mr. Standish expected to remain until the crops were harvested, but as said crop bids fair to be a minus quantity this season, he returned to more productive fields.

Fred Jorg of Estacada is home again, after a week's outing in the mountains. He reports having caught more than his share of trout in the Clackamas and South Fork, having made headquarters with Fred Bannister at the Roaring River Ranger Station.

Mrs. E. D. Allen of Estacada returned home last week, for a short visit after a three months absence at Tacoma, where Mr. Allen is employed.

The Misses Iva and Agnes Udell are attending the Union High School at Sandy.

M. J. Kerkes of Portland, the genial livestock buyer, was a visitor in this section Monday.

Don Bodley, who has been fighting fire in the nearby mountains returned home Saturday.

Many from this section are now huckleberrying or contemplating going. From reports received here, the best berries are to be found in the vicinity of the headwaters of South Eagle Creek, about five miles beyond Wild Cat Mt.

August Koennaman, who has been away for sometime working, has returned and is engaged in clearing land on his own place.

Morris Cahill of Eagle Creek, who left recently for Ft. Seward, Alaska, as a member of Co. F.—14th Regiment, in a letter to his parents received this week, reports having arrived safely, and thoroughly enjoyed the scenic trip. Since his arrival he has been transferred to Company A. of the same regiment and hopes to return to Oregon with that company next Spring. He reports no frosts yet in that section, with potatoes and clover in bloom and raspberries ripe.

There will be a novel and enjoyable Ladies Aid Society Social held at the Estacada M. E. Church next Friday evening, Sept. 14th beginning at 7:30. The affair will be a Parcel's Post Social and everyone is urged to be present.

The Viola School opened for the 1917-18 season on Monday last, with Miss Mary Rorick of Corvallis in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes last week purchased a valuable team of colts from A. F. White.

A. F. White lately purchased the Ford car of W. H. Mattoon.

Mrs. Harvey Mattoon has returned home, following a few weeks absence at an Oregon City hospital, where she underwent a serious operation.

Mrs. John Hamilton is expected home in a few days, having this week left a Portland sanitarium, where she has been undergoing treatments.

Many of the women and children of Viola have been earning easy money the past week in the picking of evergreen berries, which are plentiful this season and which are commanding a good price.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Estacada C. I. C. held Monday afternoon, Mrs. N. B. Ecker of Estacada was engaged as librarian, succeeding Mrs. A. K. Morton, who resigned. Mrs. Ecker will make her home at the club's cottage and attend to the library during the usual hours.

The next meeting of the Dorcas Society will take place Thursday afternoon, Sept. 20th at the home of Mrs. L. J. Palmateer. All ladies of the community are invited to attend and to bring flour sacks, old muslin or old table linen, for use in the sewing for the Red Cross work.

Tire Conservation Day

It is the time when we shall receive the benefit of expert information which is being given in all parts of the country in the great national movement for the reduction of tire expense.

The demonstration is free. Many important exhibits for you to see, besides expert advice and inspection — better than you could get any other time or in any other way.

You are invited — no matter what kind of tires you use. Remember the date and the place.
