Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilcox of Garfield have this week moved into the Mattoon house in Estacada.

F. D. Hunt and O. B. Coldwell, officials of the P. R. L. & P. Co. spent an hour or two in Estacada Wednesday morning, viewing the fair.

Signed—Eva Wash, Secy.

Estacada last Sunday witnessed the entry of as hard a looking crew as ever hit this town, when Warren Barr, Henry Boyer, Russell Reed and Earl Wagner returned home, after a summer spent in the forestry work in the mountains, under Forester Wallace. Each was disguised in a growth of luxuriant whiskers, ranging from virgin down on Russell's cheeks to the real old fashioned brush on Wagner's, while Warren Barr looked like the early photos of Lewis or Clark after a rough night on the Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Githens of Alspaugh, have returned to their home, following an absence of four months, during which time Mrs. Githens visited relatives at Central Lake, Michigan, while Mr. Githens was employed at Glendive, Montana. Mr. Githens later joined his wife in Michigan, returning home with her the last of August.

The Evening Telegram of last Saturday, contained a photo of the Sanford brothers, George Jr. and Frank of Portland, who formerly resided in Upper Garfield. These boys are now in England, being members of Company E, 18th Engineers, which company is reported to have arrived there safely.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bartholomew of Estacada returned Sunday from a ten days auto trip to the coast and return via the McKenzie Pass and round-about through Eastern Oregon.

A marriage license was published this week of William Kellendonk and Miss Mae Adams of Estacada.

Carl Kimmel, one of Estacada's first boys to respond to the call-to-arms, in a letter to the News this week, from Wenatchee, where he is stationed, says - "There is no doubt but that you are receiving more silent thanks every week since sending the News to us soldiers, than was ever your lot before."

THE GOOD JUDGE AT A RALLY

THE Call to the Colors calls for thrift and common sense by everybody. A 10c. pouch of W-B Cut Chewing goes twice as far as 10c.'s worth of ordinary tobacco. That's the big point: W-B Cut isn't ordinary tobacco, it's rich tobacco and a lasting chew.
