Church Will Hold All Day Service

Next Lord's day marks the close of the official year of the Estacada Christian church and the occasion will be celebrated by an all-day service, with a basket dinner at the noon recess. This is to be a get-to-gether service and all the members are urged to be present. It will be a genuinely social occasion, no business of the church is to be transacted.

The order of service for the day will be as follows: Bible-school at ten o'clock; Communion and preaching service at eleven. From twelve until two-thirty will be given over for dinner and an old-fashioned social time. At two-thirty o'clock a program in the way of special music and speaking will begin. At six-thirty the Endeavor will meet, which will be followed by preaching service at seven-thirty.

We extend a most cordial invitation to any and all to bring their lunch and spend the day with us and help make this a day long to be remembered.

We would like to have the public to bear in mind the fact that the evening hour of worship will be a half hour earlier than during the summer months. Endeavor will meet at six-thirty and preaching service at seven-thirty o'clock during the winter months. G. L. Drill, Pastor.

The Cascade Garagethis week sold a Dodge touring car to S. E. Wooster of Estacada, while S. P. Pesznecker, one of the owners, purchased a Dodge runabout.

Dave Fleming of Estacada this week purchased the S. E. Wooster home at Broadway and 5th St., where he will soon make his residence. Mr. and Mrs. Wooster are reported to be planning to move back to their Springwater farm.

Of the dozen of local hunters in the field on Monday, few were able to obtain their bag limit of Chinese pheasants. Reports from all sections indicate the birds to be even scarcer than last year and unless a closed season of a year or two is placed on them, the Chinese pheasant will soon be as extinct in this country as the legendary dodo.
