At The Family Theatre

On Saturday October 27th, both afternoon and evening, will be shown the Bluebird feature play—"Love Never Dies," being a romance of the stage, inspired by Mendelssohn's Spring Song. It is a photo-play of beautiful photography, brilliant acting and perfect production. "Felix Gets In Wrong" a clever comedy, will also be shown on this bill.

On Thursday evening, November 1st will be shown the usual good program, with the main attraction being the feature play, "Hunting of the Hawk."

Walter Douglass, supervisor of the Eagle Creek road district expects to have spread about four carloads of gravel on the main road, beginning at Baker's blacksmith shop and continuing towards Cogswell's store.

At last reports, Mrs. W. J. Moore of Estacada, who on Tuesday suffered a partial paralytic stroke, is getting along as well as could be expected and is able to be up part of the time.
