After a few years residence in Illinois and Kansas, they came to Portland in 1902, locating at Dover, Clackamas County, in 1908., Mr. Morrison having died there in January 1915.

Guenther-Valen Wedding

The marriage of Miss Nouna Valen of Elwood and Raymond R. Guenther of Schubel occurred Saturday morning, November 10th, at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Hornschuh of Lents.

The bride's mother, Mrs. M. E. Valen and the groom's father, were the only relatives attending the ceremony, which was followed with a dinner at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Grazier of Gladstone.

The newlyweds will make their home on the Guenther farm near Schubel, where the best wishes of Mrs. Guenther's friends are extended to her, many of her friends being in Estacada, where she attended school a few years ago.

Many Dances For November

November will be a busy month for the trippers of the light fantastic, for on Saturday evening next, Nov. 17th, at Cogswell's Hall in Eagle Creek, the Priscilla Club of Currinsville will give a big dance, for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Attractive invitations are also out for a dance to be given by the C. I. C. at the Estacada Pavilion for Thanksgiving night, with everyone invited to wear old clothes and enjoy a regular Hardtimes Dance.

On Thanksgiving eve, at Cogswell's Hall, will be held one of their enjoyable holiday dances and a big crowd is expected to attend all three functions.

In each instance Lew Hubbard's Real Jazz Band of Portland will furnish the music, but they will have to play real, fast and snappy music if they surpass the article recently furnished by the local Bronson-Erickson orchestra, but dancers like bankers like the change.

Y. M. C. A. Campaign On This Week

$35,000,000 TO BE RAISED BY MONDAY, NOVEMBER 19

Eastern Clackamas County's Share $1,000.

Second only in importance to the flotation of the two issues of the Liberty Loan of 1917, is the campaign to be waged during this week of November 11th to 19th by the National War Work Council of the Y. M. C. A. for the purpose of raising a fund of $35,000,000 in the United States with which to continue the work of the Association in the National Army cantonments and along the battle fronts overseas.

Every day in every city, town or village in this country there arrives a letter from a soldier boy written on the stationery supplied without cost by the Army and Navy-Y. M. C. A. In every home where this letter with its significant Red Triangle arrives there is joy. If it were not for the kindly attention of the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A., if it were not for the buildings, tents and huts of this organization, there would be thousands of homes without word from their loved ones called into the service.

In every Y. M. C. A. center there is a sign that reads, "Have You Written Mother Today?" It is an appeal that the soldier boy cannot resist. His heart is with her and he goes to the counter, gets paper and envelopes and sits down beside another comrade who is writing and jots down his message. Hundreds of thousands of boys all over the world are writing letters home in Y. M. C. A. buildings on Y. M. C. A. paper every day and night.

To make it possible for these boys to have paper and envelopes and a place to write, to give them entertainment, reading matter and so occupy their leisure time that they will not become homesick and downhearted, the Y. M. C. A. is making a national drive for $35,000,000 to continue and extend its work among the American soldiers at home and abroad. You may be getting a letter on Red Triangle stationery in your home. If you do, you know what it means to you. The Y. M. C. A. needs your support, it counts on you and the soldier counts on the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A.

Probably no single item is more important in the work of the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. than the supplying of this writing paper and envelopes to the soldiers and sailors. It is in this way that the Association serves as a connecting link to home. Every Y. M. C. A. building, tent or hut is provided with desks, pen and ink and the men are privileged to use all the paper and envelopes they need without cost.

To supply this demand it is costing thousands of dollars a day. In the western department, the states west of the Rocky mountains, it is estimated that $1000 a day is spent for stationery. At Camp Lewis, 60,000 letters are written every day by the soldiers of the new National army.

Y. M. C. A. war work secretaries carry supplies of stationery to the very front line trenches so that the fighting men may write home. No matter where the men go they find the Y. M. C. A. to greet them. It is the contribution of a generous people to the welfare and comfort of the soldier.

It will be necessary to raise $35,000,000 to continue this great humanitarian work for the next year, both at home and abroad. A national drive for this amount is being made, the campaign closing November 19. Everyone is asked to contribute. The work of the Y. M. C. A. is the greatest builder of morale in an army that the world has ever seen. Morale mean a happy, contented army and an army with morale marches on to victory. This is your opportunity to help a mighty work for the conservation of manhood.

The $35,000,000 should be given because of the direct and vital bearing which the work of the Association has in accomplishing the purpose of the war. Napoleon has said that in war morale is to other factors as three to one. Each day the warring countries are spending over $130,000,000 to supply what might be called the material factors and forces. This budget calls for devoting less than one-third that sum among over one-half of the soldiers of the war, and this not in one day but in nine months. America wisely and generously subscribed over $120,000,000 to the Red Cross in response to the first appeal. This work of the Association, calling for less than one-third of that amount, ministers not only like the Red Cross to the physical comfort of the enlisted men, and of the military prisoners but also to their intellectual and spiritual natures—in other words, to their morale.

It is proposed to distribute the funds raised in the forthcoming campaign according to the following budget which was formally adopted at the meeting of the National War Work Council held September 21, 1917 at the Bankers Club, New York City:

For work with U. S. Army and Navy men in this country	$11,120,000
For work with U. S. Army and Navy men overseas	11,994,000
For Y. M. C. A. work in the Russian Army	3,305,000

Yocum Assumes Control Of Cascade Lumber Company

A deal was consummated last week, whereby Thomas Yocum of Garfield, assumes control of the Cascade Lumber Company of Estacada.

This company, whose mill is located in Dodge, was originally the O. C. Klaetsch Lumber Company, later being controlled by the Estacada State Bank and up to the last change being managed by John R. Kenny, who moved to Estacada from Roseburg, and who placed the business on a firm foundation.

Mr. Yocum is a veteran lumberman and with the present activity in the lumber market, should do a good business and give employment to much local labor.
