

Depositors at the Estacada State Bank for a few days this week supposed they were dealing with a new cashier, but careful investigation revealed Cashier Lasswell camouflaging behind a young mustache.

E. W. Bartlett of Estacada returned early this week from a few days spent with his son, Ken, at the American Lake encampment and incidentally witnessed the football game at Tacoma between the crack Marines' team and the All Star team.

Bright red signs reading "Contagious" are now in evidence in several places in the Eagle Creek, Barton and Boring sections, marking the places where a mild epidemic of scarletina is prevalent.

It is with regret that we chronicle the contemplated removal from Estacada of Mr. A. Demoy and family, who expect to go to Oregon City. Especially will Mr. and Mrs. Demoy's absence be felt in Estacada church circles, where they have always taken a leading part.

The first quarterly meeting of the Viola Church will be held Wednesday, November 21, beginning at 10:30, followed by a basket dinner at noon. At 2 o'clock the quarterly conference will be held, Superintendent Dr. Ford presiding. The new minister, Rev. B. A. Bristol, formerly of Banks, Oregon, will be in charge of the regular meetings from now on.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Blaetch have returned to their farm in Springwater after a years residence in Portland.

Dover Doings

Contributed

Fred Anderson and family moved on Friday, to the Brightwood sawmill, four miles east of Cherryville, where he began work as head timber-faller.

Birch Roberts is busy packing apples at Hood River.

The little son of John Krieger, who was taken suddenly ill last week, necessitating the services of a physician, is now well on the way to recovery.

Joseph DeShazer purchased a new 1918 model Chevrolet car Wednesday from the Sandy agent.

R. C. Frace last week made a trip to Springwater and returned with a load of whole wheat flour.

C. E. Seward began the erection of a new house Tuesday.

J. W. Ekon is spending a few days with his family in Dover.

Ex-postmaster, A. N. Johnson of Estacada left this week for Nebraska, where he will make his headquarters, having taken the selling agency for a portion of that state, for an Oregon manufactured product.

Hal Gibson, who for the past few years has conducted the general store and postoffice at Barton, has made a trade with his brother Harvey, whereby the latter takes over the mercantile business and Hal takes over Harvey's highly improved farm.

Mrs. W. A. Heyleman of Estacada, returned Wednesday, from a two weeks business trip to Spokane, Seattle and other points.

Notice To All Women

Mrs. Jennie M. Kemp, Chairman of the Women's Committee of the State Council of Defense and Field Agent of the Federal Food Administration, who is now making a tour of Clackamas County, will be in Estacada, Wednesday evening, November 21st.

On that evening at 8 o'clock she will hold a meeting in the Family Theatre, to which all of the women of this community are invited, when she will speak on the subject "Why Women Should Co-operate with both of these Agencies for Service."

The guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Wells of Estacada last Sunday were Mrs. Fanny J. Wells, Mrs. M. M. Arrington and Mrs. John Teuscher, Jr. of Portland and Mrs. Jessie Kirby of The Dalles.

Leroy D. Walker and L. A. Brandes of Portland were business visitors at the Estacada State Bank on Tuesday.

Jehu Davis of Garfield, is reported to be seriously ill, with his condition necessitating frequent calls by his physician.

Pennies Wanted

Owing to the present demand for pennies, used in payment of the various war taxes, the Estacada State Bank wishes to ask all parties having a supply of the small coins to kindly bring them to the bank and get change for them. This applies especially to the children, whose banks in many instances contain hundreds of the coppers.

Harry C. Reid of Garfield, who enlisted at the last call for recruits early in the month, returned home last Saturday, having been honorably discharged from the service. This discharge, based on a technicality, proved a disappointment to Mr. Reid, who since the war started, has repeatedly attempted to enlist in the Officers' Reserve.

A. Morrow of McMinnville was an Estacada visitor the early part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Deming of Estacada, who returned from their honeymoon Saturday, are now settled in their home on the Boulevard and were the recipients of a mild charivari Monday evening.

Thanksgiving Night Hardtimes Dance

You and your friends are cordially invited to attend the annual dance, given by the Civic Improvement Club, at the Estacada Pavilion, Thanksgiving night, November 29th.

Dancing will be from nine o'clock until three with supper at midnight.

Artistic decorations, floor in fine shape, the best of music by Lew Hubbard's Real Jazz Band of Portland, and many novel attractions will lend to the evening's enjoyment.

Wear your old clothes. Come and have a good time.

Tickets $1 - Students 50c - Ladies free.

All For $5.

Special Subscription Offer - Until November 30th

The Evening Telegram

of Portland

Eastern Clackamas News

of Estacada

And your choice of anyone of the following:-

McCall's Magazine	Orange Judd Farmer
Today's Housewife	Farm & Fireside
People's Home Journal	Boy's Magazine

If you are already a subscriber—this offer extends your subscription one year from date of expiration of your present subscription.

News Office · Estacada

DANCE

Benefit of the Red Cross

Given by the Ladies of the

Priscilla Club of Currinsville

Saturday, Nov. 17th

Cogswell's Hall - Eagle Creek

Hubbard's Jazz Orchestra of Portland

Dancing from 8:30 P. M. to 2 A. M.

Tickets $1

Hot Tamale Supper Served in Hall 25c

Lady Floor Managers