Echoes Of Last Week

Among the E. H. S. Echoes, which lack of space prevented in these columns last week, are the following items:—

The Frosh are now the proud possessors of a brand new purple and gold pennant.

The girls, under the able direction of Miss Quilliam are daily practising basketball and hope to turn out a first class girls' team this season.

Lorna Davis, a former student of the James-John High School of Portland, entered school this week as a Sophomore, where she is warmly welcomed.

E. H. S. has again entered the Oregon State Debating League and under the direction of Prof. Wilson a great year is expected. The question for debate is "The Abolition of the Monroe Doctrine."

At the last meeting of the Student Body, that organization decided to enter the State Athletic Association.

The Adelpic Literary Society will render the next literary program on Friday, Nov. 23rd, to which all are invited.

canvass in addition to its own students, all others. Prin. Wilson of the local schools selected Lewis Jones as manager of the campaign, with Otto Jannsen, Frank Somer, Ray Drill and Virgle Yonce, Captains and the following lieutenants—Sadie Wilcox, Ruby McWillis, Pauline Zogg, Douglass Drill and Lydia Matson.

Space will not allow of naming the dozens of adults who spent many hours in this campaign, but every church and many other organizations had members and leaders in the grand drive.

Dr. W. M. Dale of Estacada, who is now a member of the 166th Depot Brigade at American Lake, this week received his commission as First Lieutenant. The doctor reports that the army life, with its drilling and work is thoroughly agreeing with him and he especially appreciates the opportunities offered in his line of dental work.

Mrs. H. Wyatt and son of Seattle, and Mrs. Arthur Abelson of Portland were guests for a few days at the home of their brother, Theodore Ahlberg of Estacada.

Mace Warnock, who lately leased his Springwater farm, and moved to near Milwaukie, spent a few days this week among friends in the home neighborhood.

Jehu Davis of Garfield, is still a pretty sick man, but is able to be about part of the time and able to be driven to Estacada for treatments.
