An Apology

The Editor-In-Chief has to be away this week, so has allowed the News' editor to write his advertising copy, which accounts for its lack of pep and he also allowed him to use part of our page for news items, as the reproduction of the County Budget occupied too much of the regular columns.

As To Collections

The E. In C. also told Standish to put in something about COLLECTIONS — that necessary and sometimes troublesome part of our business.

We told him to say that all accounts must be paid by the 10th of the month following purchase, for unless we can collect what is due us, we can't pay what we owe and the wholesale houses are mighty exacting these days.

$2600. Worth of Hogs

Freddie, our Outside Man, (we call him that, because there is more outside space on him than on Ed Saling or Bob Currin, our Insiders), this week paid out $2600. to the local growers of livestock, the carload shipped on Monday comprising largely hogs.

Don't fail to keep Freddie advised of what livestock you have for sale and he will fliver up to your place and give them a professional examination.

Ed. Folsom, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Folsom of Springwater has lately enlisted in the aviation service, being one of 6, chosen from 12,000 applicants for special work in magneto operation and upkeep. At present Mr. Folsom is located in Chicago, with Mrs. Folsom, who, with her husband had been residing at Dayton, Wash. up to the time of his enlistment, now visiting at the parental home in Springwater.

Miss Louise Maude Quilliam of the E. H. S. faculty was confined to her home in Portland owing to illness the early part of the week, her classes being in charge of Mrs. C. W. Devore of Estacada.

Death Saddens Barton Home

A telegram announcing the sudden death of her only brother, Charles Longren, which occurred at the home of his mother, Mrs. M. Longren of Boyd, Or., was received last Thursday by Mrs. Minnie Forman of Barton.

The deceased was 26 years old and is survived by his parents and two sisters.

Mrs. Forman is now at Boyd, aiding in the settlement of the estate, while Mr. Forman has returned to Barton.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wilcox have lately moved from the Springwater side of the river, to a house which they have rented in Terrace Addition.

Mrs. Ed. Allen of Estacada is now at Oroville, California, where she was called recently to attend a brother who is ill.

Everybody Get On The Bandwagon

With Alex W. Botkin of Garfield, elected as president of the Farmers' and Merchants' Club, at Monday night's meeting, that live and necessary organization is now due for a prosperous and useful year and under the able leadership of Mr. Botkin, much good should be accomplished by and for the taxpayers.

We especially urge all taxpayers in this community to join with that organization and trust that all members will give the heartiest of support to the new president.

We Are All Going To The Budget Meeting

From the present outlook, not less than two hundred Eastern Clackamas County taxpayers will be in attendance at the coming Annual County Budget Meeting, taking place at the Court House in Oregon City, Saturday, December 22nd.

Don't forget, that it is your duty as a taxpayer to be present and protect your rights and have a say in the expenditures of your tax moneys.

Phone at once to your local member of the "Get Together Committee" and tell him you will join the "gang". The committee comprises, John Ely of Estacada, Chairman—John Page and Ted Ahlberg of the same place—Bob Currin of Currinsville, Fred Anderson of Eagle Creek, Ernest Hoffmeister of Upper Eagle Creek, Harvey Gibson of Barton, N. M. Tracy and Elmer Davis of Garfield, Robert Miller of George, Sherman Kilgore of Springwater and Frank Ewing of Viola.
