Milt Marshal of Estacada and George DeShields of Garfield Wednesday caught at the Eagle Creek Falls one of the finest messes of fish seen in this neighborhood for sometime, comprising a dozen big salmon-trout and a few jack-salmon. Other anglers who fished the same waters later in the day returned home with empty baskets. But it is no disgrace not to be able to equal Milt's record, for he has fished that creek since it was a streamlet and knows when, where and how to ketchem.
