give proper attention to our new business, but we are open for and have already received all kinds of second hand articles, some of which we have already sold.

Right now we have a party who wants a good second hand cook stove, so if you have one, please advise us.

By the first of the week we will be in full swing with all kinds of furniture, implements etc on display and hereafter we are going to advertise both the goods for sale and goods wanted.

Viola Breezes Contributed

Miss Mary Roriak, the Viola teacher, is spending her Christmas vacation at her home in Corvallis.

Two men from Clackamas are camped in James Sevier's house for a few weeks, gathering ferns and evergreens nearby for the market.

A pleasant evening was spent at the Christmas tree and entertainment last Friday evening.
A goodly offering was given for the Armenian cause.

Next Sunday being the fifth Sunday, there will be an extra preaching service at 11 o'clock at the Viola church and at the Redlands church at 2 o'clock.

George Goings On Contributed

The Christmas program and dance at the club house Saturday evening was well attended, with seventy-five present. The feature of the entertainment was the play, "Christmas at the Cross Roads," with eighteen characters taking part and the distribution of presents was well interspersed with fun and comedy. The club rooms were beautifully decorated with garlands of green and red, with an arch over the stage bearing the inscription "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men."

The splendid program at the school Friday evening was attended by nearly everyone in the neighborhood, being a treat for the little folks and parents as well. Much credit is due Miss Duncan the teacher, for this successful affair. The school is closed during the holidays with Miss Duncan spending her vacation at the parental home at Hazelia.

Miss Hattie Belfils of Estacada, who is a student at the O. A. C., is home for the holidays.
