Harvey G. Starkweather, of Oregon City who has announced his candidacy for governor, is a native son of Oregon of a pioneer family. Wm. A. Starkweather, his father, came to Oregon via California gold mines in 1850—his mother by the Oregon Trail in 1846.

Mr. Starkweather, who is the youngest of three sons, was born 49 years ago in Clackamas county near where he now resides. Though having only the meager advantages afforded by the pioneer schools he became prominent as an educator. For fourteen years he was active in public school work, and during a part of that time served as county school superintendent for Clackamas county, and also as city superintendent and principal of the high school at LaGrande, Oregon.

At the present time he is a member of the local school board in his home district, also a member of the county educational board for Clackamas county and a member of the board of regents for normal schools of the state.

For several years past, Mr. Starkweather has been the member of the Democratic State Central Committee for Clackamas county. During the past two years he has been the chairman of the Democratic County Committee.
