Testimonial Letter

Estacada, Ore., Dec. 29, 1917.
Messrs. Pesznecker & Peterson,
Cascade Garage, Estacada,
Gentlemen:

I am thoroughly pleased with the J. R. Intensifiers you sold me. They are equal to any light produced by any electrically equipped self-starting machine and are a more wonderful invention. Every Ford owner should have one, no matter how fast or how slow, your lights remain the same. A guaranteed success.

Yours for better lights,
Signed W. M. Wade.

The Eagle Creek boys who lately enlisted are now attached to the 2nd Casual Detachment, at Vancouver Barracks.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Thursday the 10th at the home of Mrs. Henry Spiess of Estacada, where the afternoon will be spent in making surgical bandages, the ladies having last week delivered eighty to the Portland headquarters. All ladies are invited to join in the sewing.

With newspaper accounts of below zero weather and fuel shortages in the east and middle west, it makes one glad to live in Oregon, where New Years was a regular spring day, with wild strawberries in blossom nearby.

Mrs. H. V. Adix and children or Estacada returned home Sunday after a weeks visit among friends in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bartlett of Estacada entertained a few friends last Friday evening at a turkey dinner, followed by an evening of duplicate whist.

Mary Alice Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reed of Estacada is suffering from an attack of poison-oak, resulting from the gathering of greens for holiday decorations.

The New Years eve dance at Cogwell's Hall in Eagle Creek was well attended, with young folks from all nearby sections participating.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Morgan of Wasco returned to their home Monday, following a few days visit at the homes of their parents in Estacada and Eagle Creek, namely Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Woodle.

The Cascade Garage reports that their advertisement of last week in these columns sold four of the "J. R. Ford Light Intensifiers," and John Peterson says, "It pays big to advertise in the home paper."

Ed Steinman and John Duus of Currinsville and Garfield returned home last week from Kahlotus, Washington, where they have been operating a well digging outfit. The boys made the trip in the former's Ford, shipping to Portland from The Dalles. After the holidays they expect to return to Kahlotus, but are figuring on shipping the Ford all the way.
