Flour Feed, Groceries and Building Materials

Our building material at present comprises a full line of Door and Window Frame Stock, also Dimension Lumber.

But our arrangement now with the local mills and Portland yards make it possible for us to fill all requirements for Lumber, Lime, Lath, etc. Special lumber orders given prompt attention and all we ask is a day or two notice.

Still The Bullets Fly

Unless the 22 rifles and the kids behind them are rounded up soon, Estacadians will be forced to wear helmets and bullet proof clothing.

John Miller of Estacada is the latest complainant, with a bullet hole through his window, as evidence of the carelessness of some youthful shooter. John didn't happen to be in juxtaposition to said hole at the time of the shot, or he might have been seriously injured.

Marshal Page claims that if anymore complaints reach him of miscellaneous shooting within the city's limits, he will confiscate the guns and arrest the owners.

Dover Doings

Contributed

Alex Hess and family of Highburn, Idaho, who recently moved to Portland, motored to Dover New Years Day as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Morrison. Mr. Hess and family, a year or so ago, resided in Dover.

John Kreiger purchased a horse in Portland last week.

Hugh Fitzgerald, who has sold his farm in Dover, has purchased a house and lot in Sandy, where he will make his future home.

Supervisor Udell and George Kitzmiller have repaired the Ex-on road, where the recent flood washed away the corduroy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lasswell, lately of Philomath, Oregon, where Mr. Lasswell recently sold out his banking interests, are now guests in Estacada at the home of their son, A. L. Lasswell.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Fleming of Estacada have moved to Portland, where he is employed and where they will make their future home.

Tom Morton, of Estacada, Alaska and later of Portland is now enlisted and located in Texas. Tom had expected to return to his station with the Bureau of Fisheries at Yes Bay, Alaska the first of the year, but enlisted in the Aviation Service instead.

Ken Bartlett of the Camp Lewis Ambulance Corps, enroute from Pasadena, where he played with the 91st Division football team on New Years Day, spent Sunday and Monday at his home in Estacada.
